

Persons who wish to comment only on the environmental review of this project should submit an original and two copies of their comments to the Secretary of the Commission. Environmental commenters will be placed on the Commission's environmental mailing list, will receive copies of the environmental documents, and will be notified of meetings associated with the Commission's environmental review process. Environmental commenters will not be required to serve copies of filed documents on all other parties. However, the non-party commenters will not receive copies of all documents filed by other parties or issued by the Commission (except for the mailing of environmental documents issued by the Commission) and will not have the right to seek court review of the Commission's final order.

Motions to intervene, protests and comments may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper; see, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the "e-Filing" link. The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings.

Comment Date: May 14, 2008.

Kimberly D. Bose,
Secretary.

[Docket No. EL08-58-000]

Pepco Energy Services, Inc., Complainant, v. PJM Interconnection, L.L.C., Respondent; Notice of Complaint

April 23, 2008.

Take notice that on April 22, 2008, Pepco Energy Services, Inc. (PES) filed a formal complaint against PJM Interconnection, L.L.C. (PJM) pursuant to section 206 of the Federal Power Act, and Rule 206 of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.206, alleging that provisions of PJM's Open Access Transmission Tariff as related to the rules governing the Peak-Hour-Period Availability Charge for infrequently-run generation resources under PJM's Reliability Pricing Model are unjust, unreasonable and unduly discriminatory.

PES certifies that copies of the complaint were served on the contacts for PJM as listed on the Commission's list of Corporate Officials.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. The Respondent's answer and all interventions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. The Respondent's answer, motions to intervene, and protests must be served on the Complainants.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible on-line at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. There is an "eSubscription" link on the Web site that enables subscribers to receive e-mail notification when a document is added to a subscribed docket(s). PJM Interconnection, L.L.C.; Notice of Filing

April 23, 2008.

Take notice that on April 15, 2008, PJM Interconnection, L.L.C. filed a Petition for Declaratory Order requesting the Commission to resolve uncertainty regarding the processing of currently pending interconnection requests and resulting cost allocation determinations arising from reversals of previously announced retirements, pursuant to Rule 207, 18 CFR 385.207(a)(2) (2008).

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. On or before the comment date, it is not necessary to serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Virginia Electric and Power Company; Notice of Filing

April 23, 2008.

Take notice that on April 22, 2008, Virginia Electric and Power Company filed a material amendment to its March 10, 2008, Application to Terminate Purchase Obligation. The amendment is titled a motion for leave to file answer and answer to Smurfit Stone Container Corporation's motion to intervene, limited protest and comments. The amendment includes the net capacity of the potentially-affected qualifying facilities. This information was missing from the initial application.

Because the filing constitutes a material amendment to the March 10, 2008, application filed by Virginia Electric and Power Company, the 90-day period within which the Commission must act on this application begins on the date of the amended filing. The Commission will act on the application on or before July 21, 2008, unless the application is again materially amended.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. On or before the comment date, it is not necessary to serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.
