National Institutes of Health

Statement of Organization, Functions, and Delegations of Authority

AGENCY: National Institutes of Health, HHS.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The National Institutes of Health (NIH) All of Us Research Program has modified their organizational structure. The new organizational structure was approved by the Secretary of Health and Human Services on December 19, 2024.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Tara A. Schwetz, Director, Division of Program Coordination, Planning, and Strategic Initiatives (DPCPSI); 9000 Rockville Pike, Bethesda, MD 20892; 301-402-9852.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Part N, National Institutes of Health (NIH), of the Statement of Organization, Functions, and Delegations of Authority for the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) (42 U.S.C. 281(c); section 401(c) of the Public Health Service Act, as amended) is amended as set forth below to reflect the reorganization of the National Institute of Health, Office of the Director, by abolishing (1) the All of Us Research Program in the NIH Office of the Director, (2) establishing the All of Us Research Program within the Division of Program Coordination, Planning and Strategic Initiatives (DPCPSI), (3) establish the Environmental Influences on Child Health Outcomes Program Office (EHCO), and (4) the revised functional statement of DPCPSI.

Section N–B, Organization and Functions, under the heading National Institute of Health (N, formerly HN), Office of the Director (NA, formerly HNA) is amended as follows:

(1) In the Office of the Director (NA, formerly HNA) remove the following:

All of Us Research Program Office (NAK, formerly HNAK). (1) Oversees the design, development, implementation, and evaluation of the All of Us Research Program Office, the largest and most diverse research cohort of its kind, to foster a new era of medicine in which researchers, providers, and patients work together to develop individualized care by supporting research into the complex factors promoting health and treatment to cure disease.

Office of the Chief Executive Officer (NAK1, formerly HNAK1). (1) Provides leadership for the All of Us Research Program; (2) manages and directs executive-level activities and functions; (3) provides policy guidance and overall operational coordination for the organizational units within the All of Us Research Program; (4) supports and coordinates research projects through Other Transaction (OT) Authority, research grants, contracts, and other mechanisms; (5) initiates, develops, manages, and maintains collaborative relationships and partnerships with other Federal and non-Federal organizations, academia, industry, participants, and patients; and (6) provides leadership and oversight to the All of Us Research Program Consortium.

Division of Cohort Development (NAK3, formerly HNAK3). (1) Oversees planning, implementation, and evaluation of all cohort development activities, including the enrollment and retention of diverse participants activities for the All of Us Research Program; (2) provides oversight for the biospecimen collection enterprise, including tissue accrual, biospecimen quality and distribution, data generation and analysis, in coordination with the NIH and other Federal partners; (3) oversees a collaborative and integrated network of awardees including health care provider organizations, a direct volunteer network, and a biobank; and
