

are available on NRCS' website, along with Wellsville Canyon Watershed Plan background information at <https://www.nrcs.usda.gov/wellsville-mendon-watershed-sponsor-cache-water-district>. The meeting included a Wellsville Canyon Watershed Plan presentation followed by a group question and answer period. Wellsville Canyon Watershed Plan team members were also available to address individual questions. Comments received, including the names and addresses of those who commented, were part of the public record.

NRCS invited Federal, State, Tribal, local agencies and representatives and the public to take part in the scoping period for the Wellsville Canyon Watershed Plan. Based on funding limitations and project scope, NRCS determined an EIS was necessary, and is seeking further public comment to help determine the range of actions, alternatives, and impacts to be evaluated and included in the EIS. NRCS will include the comments received from the previous scoping efforts into the EIS analysis.

NRCS will coordinate the scoping process to correspond with Section 106 of the NHPA (54 U.S.C. 306108), as allowed in 36 CFR 800.2(d)(3) and 800.8.

Identification of Potential Alternatives, Information, and Analyses

NRCS invites agencies, Tribes, consulting parties, and individuals that have special expertise, legal jurisdiction, or interest in the Wellsville Canyon Watershed Plan to provide written comments concerning the scope of the analysis and identification of potential alternatives, information, analyses relevant to the Proposed Action.

The information about historic and cultural resources within the area potentially affected by the proposed Wellsville Canyon Watershed Plan will assist NRCS in identifying and evaluating impacts to such resources in the context of both NEPA and NHPA.

NRCS will consult with Native American Tribes on a government-to-government basis in accordance with 36 CFR 800.2 and 800.3, Executive Order 13175, and other policies. Tribal concerns, including impacts on Indian trust assets and potential impacts to cultural resources and historic properties, will be given due consideration.

Authorities

This document is published pursuant to the NEPA regulations regarding publication of an NOI to issue an EIS

(40 CFR 1501.9(d)). Watershed planning is authorized under the Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act of 1954, as amended, and the Flood Control Act of 1944.
