

Mountain Cooperative Management and Protection Area and cooperative programs and incentives for landscape management that meet human needs, and to advise the BLM on potential maintenance and improvement of the ecological and economic integrity of the area.

Agenda items for October 19 include reports from the Designated Federal Officer and Andrews/Steens Mountain Resource Area Field Manager; an introduction to strategic planning for the SMAC; 2023 recreation program recap; information sharing about the Inflation Reduction Act; discussion about the Bridge Creek Area Allotment Management Plan Environmental Impact Statement; and an opportunity for SMAC members to share information from their constituents or present research.

Agenda items for October 20 include a discussion about the Page Springs Weir; information sharing about “reasonable use” as written in the Steens Act; and continued discussion about strategic planning for the SMAC. An optional field trip at noon to the BLM’s Wild Horse Corral Facility in Hines is available. The field trip will depart from the BLM Burns District Office. The public is welcome to attend and must provide their own transportation. Any other matters that may reasonably come before the SMAC may also be included at any time throughout the meetings.

Public comment periods are scheduled for 2:15 p.m. PT on Thursday, October 19, and 10:45 a.m. PT on Friday, October 20. Depending on the number of people wishing to comment and the time available, the amount of time for oral comments may be limited. Written public comments may be sent to the BLM Burns District Office listed in the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section of this notice. All comments received at least 1 week prior to the meeting will be provided to the SMAC prior to the meeting. The meeting may end early if all business items are completed ahead of schedule or may be extended if discussions warrant more time. All meetings, including virtual sessions, are open to the public in their entirety.

Please make requests in advance for sign language interpreter services, assistive listening devices, or other reasonable accommodations. We ask that you contact the person listed in the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section of this notice at least 7 business days prior to the meeting to give the BLM sufficient time to process your request. All reasonable accommodation requests are managed on a case-by-case basis.

Public Disclosure of Comments: Before including your address, phone number, email address, or other personal identifying information in your comments, please be aware that your entire comment—including your personal identifying information—may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask us in your comment to withhold your personal identifying information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

National Institute of Corrections

Advisory Board; Notice of Meeting

This notice announces a forthcoming meeting of the National Institute of Corrections (NIC) Advisory Board. At least one portion of the meeting will be closed to the public.

Name of the Committee: NIC Advisory Board.

General Function of the Committee: To aid the National Institute of Corrections in developing long-range plans, advise on program development, and recommend guidance to assist NIC's efforts in the areas of training, technical assistance, information services, and policy/program development assistance to Federal, state, and local corrections agencies.

Date and Time: 9:00 a.m.–4:00 p.m. ET on Wednesday, September 13, 2023 (approximate times).

Location: NIC Offices, 901 D Street SW, Room 901–3, Washington, DC 20024.

Contact Person: Scott Weygandt, Management and Program Analyst, National Institute of Corrections, 320 First Street NW, Room 901–3, Washington, DC 20534. To contact Mr. Weygandt, please call (202) 598–1825, sweygandt@bop.gov.

Agenda: On September 13, 2023, the Advisory Board will: (1) receive a brief Agency Report from the NIC Acting Director, (2) receive project-specific updates from all NIC divisions, and (3) commentary on the NIC Needs Assessment Report to the Board from stakeholders, associations, and NIC Chiefs and employees. Time for questions and counsel from the Board is built into the agenda.

Procedure: On Wednesday, September 13, 2023 9:00 a.m.–3:15 p.m. the meeting is open to the public. Interested persons may request to attend in-person, and present data, information, or views, orally or in writing, on issues pending before the committee. Such requests must be made to the contact person on or before September 8, 2023. Public comment period is scheduled for approximately 3:00 p.m.–3:15 p.m. on September 13, 2023. Time allotted for each presentation may be limited. Those who wish to make formal oral presentations should notify the contact person and submit a brief statement of the general nature of the evidence or arguments they wish to present, the names and addresses of proposed participants, and an indication of the approximate time requested to make their presentation on or before September 8, 2023.

Closed Committee Deliberations: On September 8, 2023, between 3:20 p.m.–4:00 p.m., the meeting will be closed to permit discussion of information that (1) relates solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency (5 U.S.C. 552b(c) (2)), and (2) is of a personal nature where disclosure would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy (5 U.S.C. 552b(c) (6)). The Advisory Board will discuss the outcomes of continuing efforts to make recommendations to the Attorney General for the NIC Director vacancy.

General Information: NIC welcomes the attendance of the public at its advisory committee meetings and will make every effort to accommodate persons with physical disabilities or special needs. If you require special accommodations due to a disability, please contact Scott Weygandt at least 7 days in advance of the meeting. Notice of this meeting is given under the Federal Advisory Committee Act (5 U.S.C. app. 2).

Scott Weygandt,

Management and Program Analyst and Designated Federal Official, National Institute of Corrections.
