SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Chief Information Officer is responsible for meeting the requirements of section 5125 of the Clinger-Cohen Act (40 U.S.C. 11315), which established the position of the Chief Information Officer. Additional responsibilities of the CIO derive from the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3506), the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552(a)), and the E-Government Act of 2002. Accordingly, the Secretary delegates as follows:

Section A. Authority Delegated

The Secretary of HUD hereby delegates to the CIO all authority and responsibility for the Department's information technology (IT), except those already delegated to the Government National Mortgage Association (Ginnie Mae), including management of the Department's information technology resources and the authority to serve as the Department's Senior Information Technology Executive. In carrying out such duties and responsibilities, the CIO shall be responsible for meeting the requirements of section 5125 of the Clinger-Cohen Act (40 U.S.C. 11315), the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3506), and the E-Government Act of 2002. The CIO shall, among other duties:

1. Ensure compliance by all HUD program offices with the prompt, efficient, and effective implementation of Information Resources Management responsibilities.
2. Provide advice and other assistance to the Secretary of HUD and other senior management personnel of HUD to ensure that information technology (IT) is acquired and information resources are managed effectively and efficiently.
3. Approve and implement all Technology Modernization Fund (TMF) funding and development activities including, but not limited to, the authority to sign Interagency Agreements.
4. Promote the effective and efficient design and operation of all major IT processes for HUD, including improvements to work processes of the Department. Monitor and evaluate the performance of IT programs of HUD based on applicable performance measurements, and advise the Secretary of HUD and IT Governance/Oversight Boards regarding whether to continue, modify, or terminate a program or project.
5. Serve as a member of the executive branch Chief Information Officers Council, participate in its functions, and monitor the Department's implementation of IT standards promulgated by the Secretary of Commerce.
6. Serve as a representative to the Interagency Committee on Government
