

this investigation to BIS's Office of Strategic Industries and Economic Security no later than June 3, 2025. The Department is particularly interested in comments and information directed at the criteria listed in § 705.4 of the regulations as they affect national security, including the following:

(i) the current and projected demand for commercial aircraft and jet engines, and parts for commercial aircraft and jet engines, in the United States;

(ii) the extent to which domestic production of commercial aircraft and jet engines, and parts for commercial aircraft and jet engines, can meet domestic demand;

(iii) the role of foreign supply chains, particularly of major exporters, in meeting U.S. demand for commercial aircraft and jet engines, and parts for commercial aircraft and jet engines;

(iv) the concentration of U.S. imports of commercial aircraft and jet engines, and parts for commercial aircraft and jet engines, from a small number of suppliers and the associated risks;

(v) the impact of foreign government subsidies and predatory trade practices on the competitiveness of the commercial aircraft and jet engine industry, as well as the associated commercial aircraft and jet engine parts industry, in the United States;

(vi) the economic impact of artificially suppressed prices of commercial aircraft and jet engines, and parts for commercial aircraft and jet engines, due to foreign unfair trade practices and state-sponsored overproduction;

(vii) the potential for export restrictions by foreign nations, including the ability of foreign nations to weaponize their control over supplies of commercial aircraft and jet engines, and parts for commercial aircraft and jet engines;

(viii) the feasibility of increasing domestic capacity for commercial aircraft and jet engines, and parts for commercial aircraft and jet engines, to reduce import reliance;

(ix) the impact of current trade policies on domestic production of commercial aircraft and jet engines, and parts for commercial aircraft and jet engines, and whether additional measures, including tariffs or quotas, are necessary to protect national security; and

(x) any other relevant factors.

Material submitted by members of the public that is business confidential information will be exempted from public disclosure as provided for by § 705.6(a) of the NSIBR (see the ADDRESSES section of this notice). Communications from agencies of the U.S. Government will not be made available for public inspection (see 15 CFR 705.6(a)(3)). BIS does not maintain a separate public inspection facility. Oil Country Tubular Goods From India: Final Results of Countervailing Duty Administrative Review; 2022

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: The U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) determined that countervailable subsidies are being provided to producers and exporters of oil country tubular goods (OCTG) from India. The period of review (POR) is January 1, 2022, through December 31, 2022.

DATES: Applicable May 13, 2025.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Thomas Cloyd, AD/CVD Operations, Office VII, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482-1246.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On October 10, 2024, Commerce published the Preliminary Results of this administrative review in the Federal Register and invited comments from interested parties.¹ We received no comments from interested parties on the Preliminary Results, and we made no changes from the Preliminary Results. Accordingly, no decision memoranda accompany this Federal Register notice; the Preliminary Results are hereby adopted as these final results. Commerce conducted this administrative review in accordance with section 751 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act).

Scope of the Order²

The product covered by this Order is OCTG from India. For a complete description of the scope of the Order, see the Preliminary Results.

Final Results of Review

We determine that the following net countervailable subsidy exists for the period January 1, 2022, through December 31, 2022:

Producer/exporter	Subsidy rate (percent ad valorem)
Surya Roshni Limited	2.31

Disclosure

Normally, Commerce discloses to interested parties the calculations of the final results of an administrative review within five days of a public announcement or, if there is no public announcement, within five days of the date of publication of the notice of final results in the Federal Register, in accordance with 19 CFR 351.224(b). However, because we have made no changes to the Preliminary Results, there are no calculations to disclose.

Assessment Rates

Pursuant to sections 751(a)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act) and 19 CFR 351.212(b)(2), Commerce shall determine, and U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) shall assess, countervailing duties on all appropriate entries of subject merchandise in accordance with the final results of this review.

Commerce intends to issue assessment instructions to CBP no earlier than 35 days after the date of publication of the final results of this review in the Federal Register. If a timely summons is filed at the U.S. Court of International Trade, the assessment instructions will direct CBP not to liquidate relevant entries until the time for parties to file a request for statutory injunction has expired (i.e., within 90 days of publication).

Cash Deposit Requirements

In accordance with sections 751(a)(1) of the Act, Commerce also intends to instruct CBP to collect cash deposits of estimated countervailing duties in the amounts shown for the company above on shipments of subject merchandise entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after the date of publication of the final results of this administrative review. For all non-reviewed firms, we will instruct CBP to continue to collect cash deposits of estimated countervailing duties at the all-others rate or the most recent company-specific rate applicable to the company, as appropriate. These cash deposit instructions, effective upon publication of these final results, shall remain in effect until further notice.

Administrative Protective Order

This notice also serves as a reminder to parties subject to an administrative protective order (APO) of their responsibility concerning the return or destruction of proprietary information disclosed under APO in accordance with 19 CFR 351.305(a)(3), which continues to govern business proprietary information in this segment of the proceeding. Timely written notification of the return/destruction of APO materials or conversion to judicial protective order is hereby requested. Failure to comply with the regulations and terms of an APO is a violation, which is subject to sanction.

Notification to Interested Parties

These results are being issued and published in accordance with sections 751(a)(1) and 777(i)(1) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.221(b)(5).

Dated: May 5, 2025.

Abdelali Elouaradia,

Deputy Assistant Secretary for Enforcement and Compliance.

Certain Hardwood Plywood Products From the People's Republic of China: Preliminary Results of Administrative Reviews of the Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Orders, Preliminary Determinations of No Shipments, and Partial Rescissions; 2023

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: The U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) preliminarily finds that there were no shipments of certain hardwood plywood products (hardwood plywood) from the People's Republic of China (China) during the period of review (POR) January 1, 2023, through December 31, 2023, for certain companies under review. We are also rescinding these reviews with respect to 64 companies in the antidumping duty (AD) review, and five companies in the countervailing duty (CVD) review. We invite interested parties to comment on these preliminary results.

DATES: Applicable May 13, 2025.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On January 4, 2018, Commerce published in the Federal Register the AD and CVD orders on hardwood plywood from China.¹ On January 2, 2024, Commerce published in the Federal Register a notice of opportunity to request an administrative review of the Orders covering entries of hardwood plywood from China from January 1, 2023, through December 31, 2023.² On March 5, 2024, based on timely requests for administrative reviews, Commerce initiated the AD administrative review with respect to 68 companies³ and initiated the CVD administrative review with respect to nine companies.⁴

On March 26, 2024, and July 2, 2024, Commerce released entry data from U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) to interested parties for comment in the AD and CVD proceedings.⁵ Subsequently, we notified parties of our intent to rescind this administrative review with respect to 64 of the 68
