

focus on the importance of U.S. service sector exports, and the challenges and obstacles that this sector faces in international markets.

Background

In fulfilling its statutory mission, the Commission is holding field hearings to collect input from industry and labor leaders, government officials, leading researchers, other informed witnesses, and the public. Professor Murray Wiedenbaum of Washington University, St. Louis, who is a former chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisors, chairs the Commission. The Vice Chairman is Professor Dimitri Papadimitriou, president of the Jerome Levy Economics Institute at Bard College, Annandale-on-Hudson, N.Y. The Honorable C. Richard D'Amato, Commissioner, will chair the New York hearing.

Purpose of Hearing

In light of the ongoing massive trade and current account deficits incurred by the United States, progress in improving U.S. exporters' access to foreign markets is critically important. The failure of the WTO Ministerial in Seattle to come up with a negotiating agenda for a new round of multilateral trade negotiations highlights how the consensus on reducing barriers to trade has fractured. Rebuilding the consensus on trade issues in the United States is of critical importance in addressing the large U.S. trade deficits. The work of the Commission, by analyzing the U.S. trade deficits in a non-partisan manner with the input of leading experts, will provide a reasoned and informed answer on how to respond to the trade deficit and its consequences. The findings of the Commission, while not binding, will likely form the basis for Congressional consensus building on trade policy as we enter the next century.

There will be two sessions, one in the morning and one in the afternoon, for presentations by invited witnesses on their views on the interrelationship between the trade deficit and the topics of the hearing. There will be a question and answer period between the Commissioners and the witnesses. Public participation is invited and there will be an open-mike session for public comment at the conclusion of the afternoon session. Sign-up for the open-mike session will take place in the afternoon and will be on a first come first served basis. Each individual or group making an oral presentation will be limited to a total time of 3 minutes. Because of time constraints, parties with common interests are encouraged to designate a single speaker to represent their views.

DATE AND TIME: Monday, March 13, 2000, 9 am to 6 pm Eastern Standard Time inclusive.

ADDRESSES: The hearing will be held at The Regent Wall Street, site of the historic Merchants Exchange, 55 Wall Street, New York, NY 10005. Unlimited seating is available for all dignitaries and members of the public attending the hearing. Dignitaries should call the USTDRC to register.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Any member of the public wishing further information concerning the hearing or who wishes to submit oral or written comments should contact Kathy Michels, Administrative Officer for the U.S. Trade Deficit Review Commission, 444 North Capitol Street, NW, Suite 706, Washington, DC 20001; phone 202/624-1409; or via e-mail at: kmichels@sso.org.

Providing oral or written comments: Copies of the draft meeting agenda, when available, may be obtained from the U.S. Trade Deficit Review Commission by going to the Commission's website at www.ustdrc.gov. The Commission requests that written public statements submitted for the record be brief and concise and limited to two pages in length. Written comments (at least 35 copies) must be received at the USTDRC Headquarters Office in Washington, DC by March 6, 2000. Comments received too close to the hearing date will normally be provided to the Commission Members at its hearing. Written comments may be provided up until the time of the hearing.

Authority: The Trade Deficit Review Commission Act, Pub. L. No. 105-277, Div. A, section 127, 112 Stat. 2681-547 (1998), established the Commission to study the nature, causes and consequences of the United States merchandise trade and current accounts deficits and report its findings to the President and the Congress. By statute, the Commission must hold at least 4 regional field hearings and 1 hearing in Washington, DC. This is the fourth in a series of field hearings to be conducted. The schedule of hearings is available at the US Trade Deficit Review Commission website www.ustdrc.gov.

DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS AFFAIRS

Advisory Committee on Readjustment of Veterans, Notice of Meeting

The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) gives notice under Public Law 92-463 that a meeting of the Advisory Committee on the Readjustment of Veterans will be held February 24 and 25, 2000. This is a regularly scheduled meeting for the purpose of reviewing VA services for veterans, and to formulate Committee recommendations and objectives. The meeting on both days will be held at The American Legion, Washington Office, 1608 K Street, NW, Washington, DC. The agenda on both days will commence at 8:30 a.m. and adjourn at 4:30 p.m.

The agenda for February 24 will begin with a review of the transition of the Veterans Health Administration (VHA) to an outpatient managed health care system, and a discussion of VHA special emphasis programs. The agenda will also cover a review of the Readjustment Counseling Service Vet Centers, and will review the programs and activities of VHA's medical center-based post-traumatic stress disorder and substance abuse program.

On February 25, the Committee will review issues related to compensation and pension for PTSD, and VHA programs for women veterans and AIDS services. The agenda will also consist of a planning meeting to formulate objectives and recommendations for the Committee's Congressional report.

The meeting will be open to the public. Those who plan to attend or who have questions concerning the meeting should contact Alfonso R. Bartes, Director, Readjustment Counseling Service, Department of Veterans Affairs (telephone number: 202-273-8967).

Dated: February 4, 2000.

By Direction of the Secretary:

Marvin R. Eason,

Committee Management Officer.
