III. Provisions for Disposition of Existing Stocks

Existing stocks are those stocks of registered pesticide products that are currently in the United States and that were packaged, labeled, and released for shipment prior to the effective date of the cancellation, which will be the date of publication of the cancellation order in the Federal Register. In any order issued in response to these requests, EPA anticipates including the following provisions for the treatment of any existing stocks of the products listed in Unit II.:

The registrant of the products in Table 1 of Unit II. has requested to sell and distribute existing stocks for a period of 18-months after the effective date of the cancellation order. Thereafter, registrants will be prohibited from selling or distributing the products identified in Table 1 of Unit II., except for export consistent with FIFRA section 17 (7 U.S.C. 136o) or for proper disposal.

Persons other than the registrant will generally be allowed to sell, distribute, or use existing stocks of the canceled products until such stocks are exhausted, provided that such sale, distribution, or use is consistent with the terms of the previously approved labeling on, or that accompanied, the canceled products.

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

[Docket No. FMC–2025–0010]

Notice of Intent To Revoke Exemptions Granted to Certain Controlled Carriers

AGENCY: Federal Maritime Commission.

ACTION: Notice and request for comments.

SUMMARY: The Federal Maritime Commission (“Commission”) intends to revoke certain exemptions that had been granted to some controlled carriers, allowing for their rates, charges, classifications, rules or regulations to become effective with less than thirty (30) days’ notice. This revocation would apply to exemptions that were granted to entities that have since been removed from the Commission’s list of controlled carriers. Exemptions that have been granted to controlled carriers that remain on this list would continue to be valid but may be reviewed in the future. The Commission invites comments from the public on this proposed action.

DATES: Submit comments on or before June 30, 2025.

ADDRESSES: You may submit comments, identified by Docket No. FMC–2025–0010, by the following method:

Federal eRulemaking Portal: Your comments must be written and in English. You may submit your comments electronically through the Federal Rulemaking Portal at www.regulations.gov. Please refer to the “Public Participation” heading under the SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION section of this notice for detailed instructions on how to submit comments, including instructions on how to request confidential treatment.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

A controlled carrier is a vessel-operating common carrier that is owned or controlled by a foreign government.¹ Controlled carriers are subject to enhanced regulatory oversight to ensure that they do not abuse their subsidized position in the marketplace.² One of the provisions of 46 U.S.C. Chapter 407 stipulates that the tariff rates or charges of controlled carriers cannot become effective until the 30th day after their publication.³

The Commission has previously granted exemptions to certain controlled carriers from the requirements of 46 U.S.C. 40703, pursuant to the administrative exemption authority found at 46 U.S.C. 40103. Such exemptions allowed these controlled carriers’ rates, charges, classifications, rules and regulations to become effective less than 30 days after their publication. These exemptions did not change the status of any of these carriers as controlled carriers; they are limited to allowing the carrier’s rates, charges, classifications, rules or regulations to become effective in less than 30 days’ notice.⁴ The Commission also has the authority to revoke previously granted administrative exemptions.⁵ In granting these exemptions from section 40703, the Commission has declined to grant permanent exemptions because doing so would impinge on the Commission’s authority to revoke them.⁶

In 2004, sections of the Shipping Act of 1984 were rearranged and renumbered. Exemptions under section 9(c) of the Shipping Act that had been codified at 46 U.S.C. 1708, allowing changes to controlled carriers’ rates, charges, classifications, rules or regulations to become effective more quickly than 30 days after their publication with Commission permission, were moved to 46 U.S.C. 40703. The statutory language of the two sections is nearly identical. In addition, Commission explanations suggest that the Commission did not view exemptions under section 40703 differently than exemptions under section 1708. For example, in granting a section 40703 exemption to United Arab Shipping and Hainan P O Shipping, the Commission stated that it “has previously granted exemptions from [section] 40703” and cited to some exemptions that were granted under section 40703 and to others that were granted under section 1708.⁷ As such, it is the Commission’s position that, historically, it has viewed the exemptions granted under section 1708 to be equivalent to the exemptions granted under section 40703.

II. Intent To Revoke Certain Exemptions Granted Under 46 U.S.C. 40703

Many of the entities to which the Commission granted exemptions from 46 U.S.C. 40703 have since been removed from the Commission’s list of controlled carriers for various reasons, such as no longer offering carriage in the U.S. trades or having been bought by private companies. Because the Commission has declined to grant permanent exemptions,⁸ there should not be any expectations that these exemptions are permanent. However, until now, the Commission has not revoked any exemptions, even when an entity’s circumstances have changed, such as having been removed from the list of controlled carriers. Rather than allowing that to create an expectation that an exemption remains valid abrogate the Commission’s authority under section 16 and its obligations under section 9 [of the Shipping Act of 1984] . . . The Commission retains its full authority to revoke the instant exemption subject to the requirements of section 16 of the Shipping Act of 1984, 46 U.S.C. app. [sec.] 1715.”)

⁷ See Petition of United Arab Shipping Company (S.A.G.) for an Exemption from the Controlled Carrier Act, Docket No. P1–14, Order Granting Petition (July 16, 2015); Petition of Hainan P O Shipping Co., Ltd. for an Exemption from the Controlled Carrier Act, Docket No. P1–10, Order Granting Petition (December 9, 2010).

⁸ See, e.g., Petition of China Ocean Shipping (Group) Company for a Partial Exemption from the Controlled Carrier Act, Docket No. P3–99, Order Granting Petition in Part (April 1, 2004).

through such changes in circumstances, the Commission is giving notice that it intends to revoke these exemptions.

The revocation of these exemptions would not prevent an entity from petitioning for an exemption again, if its status changes such that it again becomes classified as a controlled carrier. The Commission is requesting comments regarding its intent to revoke these exemptions.

The Commission has granted exemptions to the following entities:

1. China Ocean Shipping (Group) Company on April 1, 2004 (now named COSCO SHIPPING Lines Co., Ltd.);⁹
2. China Shipping Container Lines Co., Ltd., on April 1, 2004;¹⁰
3. Sinotrans Container Lines Co., Ltd. (SINOLINES), on April 1, 2004;¹¹
4. American President Lines, Ltd. and APL Co., Pte. Ltd., (one ocean common carrier designated as “APL”) on October 27, 2004;¹²
5. China Shipping (Hong Kong) Container Lines Co., Ltd., on March 29, 2005;¹³
6. Hainan P O Shipping Co., Ltd. (“Hainan Shipping Co.”) on December 9, 2010;¹⁴
7. United Arab Shipping Company (S.A.G.) (“United Arab Shipping Company”) on July 16, 2015;¹⁵
8. COSCO Container Lines Europe GmbH (“COSCO Europe”) on November 9, 2015;¹⁶
9. Orient Overseas Container Line Limited (“OOCL”) on October 30, 2018;¹⁷ and
10. OOCL (Europe) Limited on October 30, 2018.¹⁸

The following entities have since been removed from the list of controlled carriers:¹⁹

1. Sinotrans Container Lines Co., Ltd. on August 27, 2012;
2. Hainan Shipping Co. on August 2, 2017;
3. United Arab Shipping Company on August 2, 2017;
4. China Shipping Container Lines (Hong Kong) Company, Ltd. on August 2, 2017;

7. COSCO Europe on February 27, 2024.

The above-named entities listed as being removed from the list of controlled carriers are no longer controlled carriers under 46 U.S.C. 40102(9), 46 U.S.C. chapter 407 and 46 CFR part 565. As a result, the Commission finds that there is good cause to revoke their exemptions and is issuing this notice of intent to revoke them.

The exemptions granted to OOCL,²⁰ OOCL (Europe),²¹ and COSCO SHIPPING Lines Co., Ltd.²² remain in place because these companies are still on the Commission's list of controlled carriers. However, the Commission may review these exemptions in the future.
