Abstract: These standards apply to each municipal waste combustor (MWC) unit with a capacity greater than 250 tons per day of municipal solid waste which commenced construction, modification or reconstruction after December 20, 1989. MWCs are required to keep records and periodically report their compliance status. Information required by the NSPS is necessary to ensure that emission standards are attained and that MWC's are properly operated and maintained.

Form Numbers: None.

Respondents/affected entities:

Owners and operators of municipal waste combustor units.

Respondent's obligation to respond: Mandatory (40 CFR part 60, subparts Ea and Eb).

Estimated number of respondents: 13 (total).

Frequency of response: Initially, quarterly, semiannually, and annually.

Total estimated burden: 20,272 hours (per year). Burden is defined at 5 CFR 1320.3(b).

Total estimated cost: $1,897,888 (per year), includes $136,636 annualized capital or operation & maintenance costs.

Changes in the Estimates: There is a decrease of 149 hours in the total estimated respondent burden compared with the ICR currently approved by OMB. These changes are due to the following adjustments: (1) The number of sources subject to each Subpart was revised to reflect more recent information obtained through the Agency's research within the MWC sector; (2) the number of sources required to submit initial notification and site analysis was corrected to reflect this activity as a burden only for new sources, rather than for existing sources; (3) several mathematical errors in calculating burden costs were corrected; and (4) all estimates were updated using more recent labor rates.

Acting Director, Collection Strategies Division.

Nature and Extent of Confidentiality: No questions of a confidential nature are asked.

Needs and Uses: In Report and Order and Order on Reconsideration, FCC 11–50, the Commission adopted rules that related to implementation of section 224 pole attachment access rules.

Specifically, the pole attachment access rules create a series of deadlines or “timelines” by which communications providers (“attachers”) request and receive permission from electric utilities and incumbent LECs (“pole owners” or “utilities”) to attach facilities to utility poles (“access”). A denial (or partial grant) of access by a utility must include all relevant evidence and information, and explain how the evidence and information relate to lack of capacity, safety, reliability, or engineering standards. In practice, this requirement causes the utility to survey the requested poles where access is requested and to perform an engineering analysis. Other paperwork burdens are triggered during the pole-preparation stage of the timeline (“make-ready”). These include sending letters of notification to any known entities with existing attachments and the requesting attacher. Such notification letters are sent when a make-ready schedule is established. If the make-ready period is interrupted; and if the pole owner asserts its right to one 15-day extension of time, notification letters are also required. Pole owners both perform and coordinate make-ready work. Additionally, the Order adopted a rule requiring utilities to post a list of approved contractors, and required new attachers that use contractors to perform pole attachment surveys or make-ready work in lieu of the utility using its own workers to choose from among approved contractors. If an attacher uses a utility-approved contractor, it must notify the utility, and invite the utility to send a representative to oversee the work.

Finally, the Order also broadens the existing enforcement process by permitting incumbent local exchange carriers (LECs) to file complaints alleging that the attachment rates demanded by electric utilities are unreasonable. The Order also encourages incumbent LECs that benefit from lower pole attachment costs to file data at the Commission that demonstrate that the benefits are being passed on to consumers.
