

that are products of a Central American country, any concession which should be sought by the United States, or any other matter relevant to the proposed agreement. The TPSC invites comments and testimony on all of these matters and, in particular, seeks comments and testimony addressed to:

(a) General and commodity-specific negotiating objectives for the proposed agreement.

(b) Economic costs and benefits to U.S. producers and consumers of removal of tariffs and non-tariff barriers to U.S.-Central American trade.

(c) Treatment of specific goods (described by Harmonized System tariff numbers) under the proposed agreement, including comments on (1) product-specific import or export interests or barriers, (2) experience with particular measures that should be addressed in the negotiations, and (3) in the case of articles for which immediate elimination of tariffs is not appropriate, a recommended staging schedule for such elimination.

(d) Adequacy of existing customs measures to ensure Central American origin of imported goods, and appropriate rules of origin for goods entering the United States under the proposed agreement.

(e) Existing Central American sanitary and phytosanitary measures and technical barriers to trade.

(f) Existing barriers to trade in services between the United States and Central America that should be addressed in the negotiations.

(g) Relevant trade-related intellectual property rights issues that should be addressed in the negotiations.

(h) Relevant investment issues that should be addressed in the negotiations.

(i) Relevant government procurement issues that should be addressed in the negotiations.

(j) Relevant environmental issues that should be addressed in the negotiations.

(h) Relevant labor issues that should be addressed in the negotiations.

(i) Relevant government procurement issues that should be addressed in the negotiations.

(j) Relevant environmental issues that should be addressed in the negotiations.

(h) Relevant labor issues that should be addressed in the negotiations.

Comments identifying as present or potential trade barriers laws or regulations that are not primarily trade-related should address the economic, political and social objectives of such regulations and the degree to which they discriminate against producers of the other country. At a later date, the USTR, through the TPSC, will publish notice of reviews regarding (a) the possible environmental effects of the proposed agreement and the scope of the U.S. environmental review of the proposed agreement, and (b) the impact of the proposed agreement on U.S. employment and labor markets.

A hearing will be held on November 19, 2002, in Rooms 1 and 2, 1724 F Street, NW., Washington, DC. If necessary, the hearing will continue on subsequent days. Persons wishing to testify at the hearing must provide written notification of their intention by November 12, 2002. The notification should include: (1) The name, address, and telephone number of the person presenting the testimony; and (2) a short (one or two paragraph) summary of the presentation, including the subject matter and, as applicable, the product(s) (with HTSUS numbers), service sector(s), or other subjects (such as investment, intellectual property and/or government procurement) to be discussed. A copy of the testimony must accompany the notification. Remarks at the hearing should be limited to no more than five minutes to allow for possible questions from the TPSC. Persons with mobility impairments who will need special assistance in gaining access to the hearing should contact the TPSC Executive Secretary.

Interested persons, including persons who participate in the hearing, may submit written comments by noon, December 2, 2002. Written comments may include rebuttal points demonstrating errors of fact or analysis not pointed out in the hearing. All written comments must state clearly the position taken, describe with particularity the supporting rationale, and be in English. The first page of written comments must specify the subject matter, including, as applicable, the product(s) (with HTSUS numbers), service sector(s), or other subjects (such as investment, intellectual property and/or government procurement).

3. Requirements for Submissions

In order to facilitate prompt processing of submissions, the Office of the United States Trade Representative strongly urges and prefers electronic (e-mail) submissions in response to this notice. In the event that an e-mail submission is impossible, submissions should be made by facsimile.

Persons making submissions by e-mail should use the following subject line: "United States—Central America Free Trade Agreement" followed by (as appropriate) "Notice of Intent to Testify," "Testimony," or "Written Comments." Documents should be submitted as either WordPerfect, MSWord, or text (.TXT) files. Supporting documentation submitted as spreadsheets are acceptable as Quattro Pro or Excel. For any document containing business confidential information submitted electronically, the file name of the business confidential version should begin with the characters "BC-", and the file name of the public version should begin with the characters "P-". The "P-" or "BC-" should be followed by the name of the submitter. Persons who make submissions by e-mail should not provide separate cover letters; information that might appear in a cover letter should be included in the submission itself. To the extent possible, any attachments to the submission should be included in the same file as the submission itself, and not as separate files.

Written comments, notice of testimony, and testimony will be placed in a file open to public inspection pursuant to 15 CFR 2003.5, except business confidential information exempt from public inspection in accordance with 15 CFR 2003.6. Business confidential information submitted in accordance with 15 CFR 2003.6 must be clearly marked "Business Confidential" at the top of each page, including any cover letter or cover page, and must be accompanied by a nonconfidential summary of the confidential information. All public documents and nonconfidential summaries shall be available for public inspection in the USTR Reading Room. The USTR Reading Room is open to the public, by appointment only, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday. An appointment to review the file must be scheduled at least 48 hours in advance and may be made by calling (202) 395-6186.

Notice of Intent To Request Renewal From the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) of Six Current Public Collections of Information

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: In compliance with the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C 3501 et seq.), the FAA invites public comment on six currently approved public information collections which will be submitted to OMB for renewal.

DATES: Comments must be received on or before December 16, 2002.

ADDRESSES: Comments must be mailed or delivered to the FAA at the following address: Ms. Judy Street, Room 613, Federal Aviation Administration, Standards and Information Division, APF-100, 800 Independence Ave., SW., Washington, DC 20591.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Ms. Judy Street at the above address or on (202) 267-9895.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. Therefore, the FAA solicits comments on the following current collections of information in order to evaluate the necessity of the collection, the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden, the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected, and possible ways to minimize the burden of the collection in preparation for submission to renew the clearances of the following information collections.

1. 2120-0026, Domestic and International Flight Plans. Title 49 U.S.C., paragraph 40103(b) authorizes regulations governing the flight of the aircraft. 14 CFR 91 prescribes requirements for filing domestic and international flight plans. The information is collected to provide services to aircraft inflight and protection of persons and property of the ground. The current estimated annual reporting burden is 293,072 hours.

2. 2120-0039, Operating Requirements: Commuter and On-Demand Operation—14 CFR Part 135. Title 49 U.S.C., Section 44702, authorizes the issuance of air carrier operating certificates, 14 CFR Part 135 prescribes requirements for Air Carrier/Commercial Operators. The information collected shows compliance and applicant eligibility for these operating certificates. The current estimated annual reporting burden is 1,128,904 hours.

3. 2120-0043, Recording of Aircraft Conveyances and Security Documents. Title 49, U.S.C., Section 44108 provides for establishing and maintaining a system for recording of security conveyances affecting title to, or interest in, U.S. civil aircraft, as well as certain specifically identified engines, propellers, or spare parts locations, and for recording of releases relating to those conveyances. The information collected is used to ensure proper compliance with the provisions of this regulation and to ensure that the national air transportation system is secure. The current estimated annual reporting burden is 55,406 hours.

4. 2120-0606, Fleet and Operations Reporting: Grand Canyon National Park. The information is needed to establish accurate information on overflights of Grand Canyon National Park for noise and safety management purposes, validate noise models for use in mitigation studies, determine when and where noise mitigation is required, and provide the basis for a flexible and adaptable noise management system. The current estimated annual reporting burden is 48 hours.

5. 2120-0608, Commercial Space Transportation Licensing Regulations. The required information is used to determine if applicant proposals for conducting commercial space launches can be accomplished in a safe manner according to regulations and license orders by the Office of the Associate Administrator for Commercial Space Transportation. The current estimated annual reporting burden is 3,236 hours.

6. 2120-0652, Changes in Permissible Stage 2 Airplane Operations. The information collected is used by the FAA to issue special flight authorization for nonrevenue operations of Stage 2 airplanes at U.S. Airports. Since this information is voluntarily submitted, operators only need to provide information when they need a special flight authorization. The current estimated annual reporting burden is 25 hours.

Issued in Washington, DC, on October 8, 2002.

Judith D. Street,

FAA Information Collection Clearance Officer, APF-100.
