Irving Tanning Company, Hartland, Maine; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and under section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on December 11, 2003, applicable to workers of Irving Tanning Company located in Hartland, Maine. The notice will soon be published in the Federal Register.

At the request of the State Agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers produce leather.

The review shows that all workers of Irving Tanning Company, Hartland, Maine, were previously certified eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under petition number TA-W-39,075, which expired on July 13, 2003.

Therefore, in order to avoid an overlap in worker group coverage, the Department is amending the November 6, 2002, impact date established for TA-W-53,569, to read July 14, 2003.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-53,569 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Irving Tanning Company, Hartland, Maine, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after July 14, 2003, through December 11, 2005, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 13th day of January, 2004.

Linda G. Poole,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Johnston Industries Alabama, Inc., Opp & Micolas Mills, Opp, Alabama; and Johnston Industries, Inc., New York, New York; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on April 9, 2003, applicable to workers of Johnston Industries Alabama, Inc., Opp & Micolas Mills, Opp, Alabama. The notice was published in the Federal Register on April 24, 2003 (68 FR 20177).

At the request of a petitioner, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers were engaged in the production of window treatment fabrics for the textile industry.

Information shows that worker separations occurred at the New York, New York location of the subject firm. The workers provided sales and design functions for the subject firm's production facility located in Opp, Alabama.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to include workers of Johnston Industries, Inc., New York, New York.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Johnston Industries Alabama, Inc., Opp & Micolas Mills who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-50,801 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Johnston Industries Alabama, Inc., Opp & Micolas Mills, Opp, Alabama (TA-W-50,801) and Johnston Industries, Inc., New York, New York (TA-W-50,801A), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after February 4, 2002, through April 9, 2005, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 14th day of January, 2004.

Elliott S. Kushner,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Moltech Power Systems, a Subsidiary Of Moltech Holding Corp., Including Leased Workers of Gevity Hr, Gainesville, Florida; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on January 27, 2003, applicable to workers of Moltech Power Systems, a subdivision of Moltech Holding Corporation, Gainesville, Florida. The notice was published in the Federal Register on February 24, 2003 (68 FR 8620).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers were engaged in the production of NiCd and NiMh rechargeable batteries.

Information provided by the company shows that all workers of the Gainesville, Florida location of the subject firm are leased workers of Gevity hr.

Information also shows that workers separated from employment at the subject firm had their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account for Gevity hr employed at Moltech Power Systems, a subsidiary of Moltech Holding Corporation at the Gainesville, Florida location of the subject firm.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include leased workers of Gevity hr working at Moltech power Systems, a subsidiary of Moltech Holding Corporation, Gainesville, Florida.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Moltech Power Systems, a subsidiary of Moltech Holding Corporation who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-50,493 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Moltech Power Systems, a subsidiary of Moltech Holding Corporation, including leased workers of Gevity hr, Gainesville, Florida, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after December 12, 2002, through January 27, 2005, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.
