

Exchange may forebear, at its sole discretion, from commencing suspension and delisting, notwithstanding their failure to file within the time periods specified in section 802.01E. The Exchange will advise the SEC of, and publish on the NYSE's Web site, any such determination. In addition, the Exchange will reevaluate such determination once every three months and, if the Exchange reaffirms its decision to allow trading to continue, the Exchange will advise the SEC of, and publish on the NYSE's website, that reaffirmation.

In all such cases, Exchange staff will continue to hold regular discussions and meetings with the company's management, directors, regulators and advisors to monitor the status of the annual report filing, as well as the company's compliance with the NYSE's other qualitative and quantitative requirements, and to determine whether to allow the company to continue to trade despite the continued failure to file an annual report with the SEC. In addition, in order to provide investors with appropriate notice that companies have failed to file their annual reports with the SEC in a timely manner, the Exchange will continue to monitor and disseminate transparent information on the failure of such companies to file their annual report with the SEC, including through appending an ".LF" indicator in the financial status field of the company's ticker symbol and distributing that information via the low speed ticker and through our data stream to market data vendors.

The NYSE also maintains an up to date list of companies that are late in filing their annual reports with the SEC on our Web site at <http://www.nyse.com>. Additionally, each NYSE listed company has a unique data page on the site and, when applicable, this page indicates that the company is considered a late filer.

With respect to all companies subject to section 802.01E, the Exchange is also proposing to (i) shorten the initial monitoring period for companies that miss their Filing Due Date from nine to six months and (ii) lengthen from three to six months the additional period that the Exchange may grant companies prior to the commencement of suspension and delisting procedures. In addition, the Exchange is proposing minor amendments to section 802.01E to clarify the requirements regarding procedures for press releases relating to late filings.<sup>4</sup>
