Estimated number of respondents: SMBs (de novo): 1; SMBs with trust departments: 209; SMBs without trust departments: 545; SMB officers/employees: 2,389.

Estimated average hours per response: SMBs (de novo): recordkeeping, 40 hours. SMBs with trust departments: recordkeeping, 2 hours; disclosure, 16 hours. SMBs without trust departments: recordkeeping, 15 minutes; disclosure, 5 hours. SMB officers/employees: reporting, 2 hours.

General description of report: Section 15C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Act), establishes federal regulation of brokers and dealers of government securities, including banks and other financial institutions, and directs those brokers and dealers to keep certain records.¹ These requirements are implemented for SMBs by sections 208.34(c), (d), and (g) of the Board's Regulation H, which require that non-exempt state member banks² effecting securities transactions for customers establish and maintain a system of records of these transactions, furnish confirmations of transactions to customers that disclose certain information, and establish written policies and procedures relating to securities trading.

Legal authorization and confidentiality: FR H-3 is authorized pursuant to Section 23 of the Act,³ which empowers the Board to make rules and regulations implementing those portions of the Act for which it is responsible. Because these records and disclosures would be maintained at each banking organization, the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) would only be implicated if the Board obtained such records as part of the examination or supervision of a banking organization. In the event the records are obtained by the Board as part of an examination or supervision of a financial institution, this information may be considered confidential pursuant to exemption 8 of the FOIA, which protects information contained in "examination, operating, or condition reports" obtained in the bank supervisory process.⁴ In addition, the information may also be kept confidential under exemption 4 for the FOIA, which protects commercial or financial information obtained from a person that is privileged or confidential.⁵

Current actions: On October 14, 2020, the Board published a notice in the Federal Register (85 FR 65047) requesting public comment for 60 days on the extension, without revision, of FR H-3. The comment period for this notice expired on December 14, 2020. The Board did not receive any comments.
