

has made a number of changes as part of this new collection. These changes include the following: The FNS-909 is no longer the most appropriate instrument to collect the information from participants, and the new collection will not use the FNS-909. The proposed collection includes new questions outside of the FNS-909 scope. The new questions are necessary to determine nominee eligibility for training participation. We have also updated the course nomination from a paper to online format.

Affected Public: State, Local, and Tribal governments. Respondent groups identified include: (1) Child Nutrition program operators and (2) State agency staff.

Estimated Number of Respondents: The annual number of respondents is two-fold since those completing the course evaluations are a subset of those who completed the nomination form. The number of respondents to the State agency letter and nomination form is 285. This includes: 155 child nutrition professionals and 130 State agency staff. Approximately half of the State agency staff read the letter but complete no further components of the collection. The course evaluations (welcome questions, course evaluations, and program impact evaluations) will be completed by a subset of respondents to the course nomination who were selected for participation in PSU. The total number of unique respondents for this collection is 285.

Estimated Number of Responses per Respondent: Each respondent will be asked to complete the nomination information one time. Respondents are asked to complete all three program evaluation instruments, however, since participation is voluntary, few participants choose to respond to all three program evaluation components. Because of this, FNS estimates that the frequency for the requirements in this collection will mainly be 1, although it may range anywhere from 1 to 4, depending on how many of the optional evaluation instruments the respondent decides to complete. Overall, FNS estimates that the number of responses per respondents across the entire collection is 2.256.

Estimated Total Annual Responses: 643 total annual responses. Following the course nomination, respondents may choose to voluntarily respond to other instruments (Welcome Questions, Course Evaluation, and Program Impact Evaluation). Therefore, the total number of responses across all instruments does not equal the number of unique respondents (see estimated annual burden table below for response breakdown).

Estimated Time per Response: The estimated time of response is 5 minutes (0.083 hours) for the State agency letter, 15 minutes (0.25 hours) for the course nomination, 10 minutes (0.167 hours) for Welcome Questions, 15 minutes for Course Evaluation, and 20 minutes (0.334 hours) for Program Impact Evaluation as shown in the table below. This is an annual average time of approximately 13 minutes (0.214 hours) per respondent across all of the items in the collection.

Estimated Total Annual Burden on Respondents: 138 hours. See the table below for estimated total annual burden for each type of respondent.
