

period, the Department received only two comments. Both commenters felt that the Department should clarify further the photograph requirement for dependent children. The Department's interim regulation requires that the entry must include photographs of ALL children who are unmarried and under age of 21 years. The word "all" implies any child of the alien, regardless of nationality, and regardless of whether the child resides with the applicant and whether or not the child intends to immigrate to the United States.

In past years, the Diversity Visa Program has been plagued by a high incidence of fraudulent derivatives applying with the principal DV applicant. This causes delays in DV issuances at many posts as much time is spent by consular staff investigating alleged family relationships. For this reason, it was determined that for DV-2003, photos of all unmarried children under age 21 would be required on the DV entry. With this rule, the Department hopes to avoid a complicated range of exceptions to the photo requirement, and the regulations regarding photographs for dependents shall remain as published in the interim rule.

One of the commenters also expressed concern about the size of the photograph, indicating that it may be difficult in some countries to obtain a photograph of the required size. While the Department does not have any reason to believe that applicants will have difficulty obtaining photographs of the required size, for DV 2003, photographs ranging in size from 37 mm x 37 mm to 50 mm x 50 mm will be accepted on the DV entries. Any DV 2003 entry submitted with photos that do not conform to the sizes in this range will be disqualified at the Kentucky Consular Center. The commenter also feels that some of the specifications are redundant. The Department believes that the specifications for acceptable photographs are sufficiently detailed, and although perhaps redundant, are specific as to what meets the Department's needs, and are probably, as the commenter points out, the most common requirements for producing a photograph for any type of official documents. The Department has, therefore, determined that the photograph specifications indicated in the interim rule shall remain as published.

How Will This Final Rule Affect the Regulations in the Interim Rule?

The Department has reviewed the comments submitted during the comment period and has made some modification to the interim rule regarding the photograph size requirements.
