

Consistent with President Trump's commitment to ending unlawful, unnecessary, and onerous regulations, FHWA is reviewing its existing regulations and ongoing regulatory activities for alignment with the law and Administration priorities. FHWA is withdrawing this rulemaking activity because further rulemaking action does not align with current Agency needs, priorities, and objectives. Terminating this rulemaking does not impact any current safety efforts. FHWA continues to consider the best means of addressing some or all the issues surrounding its regulations and the scope of any Agency actions FHWA concludes may be necessary to address these issues.

In addition, all Agencies participate in the semi-annual Unified Agenda, which provides a summary description of the rulemaking actions that each Agency is considering or reviewing. Agencies' agendas are posted on the public website of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, and portions are published in the Federal Register in the spring and fall of each year. The Unified Agenda is often used as a tool to solicit interest and participation from stakeholders. Termination of this rulemaking will allow FHWA to better align its entries on the Department's Unified Agenda with the Agency's needs, priorities, and objectives.

Accordingly, for these independently sufficient reasons, FHWA is terminating the rulemaking associated with RIN 2125-AG08. By terminating the rulemaking, FHWA is indicating that it no longer considers this rulemaking to be pending. Should FHWA decide at a future date to initiate the same or similar rulemaking, FHWA will initiate a new rulemaking under a new RIN, consistent with the requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act, Title 5, United States Code, 553.

Executive Director, Federal Highway Administration.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

HUD’s regulations governing Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing (“AFHM”) are contained in 24 CFR parts 108 and 200, subpart M. See final rule, Compliance Procedures for Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing, 44 FR 47012 (August 9, 1979), codified as amended at 24 CFR part 200, subpart M—Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Regulations, 37 FR 75 (January 5, 1972), codified as amended at 24 CFR part 200, subpart M. These regulations require applicants for participation in Federal Housing Administration (FHA) housing programs to “pursue affirmative fair housing marketing policies in soliciting buyers and tenants, in determining their eligibility, and in concluding sales and rental transactions.” 24 CFR 200.610. These regulations state that a marketing program “shall typically involve publicizing to minority persons the availability of housing opportunities regardless of race, color, religion, sex, handicap or familial status or national origin, through the type of media customarily utilized by the applicant, including minority publications or other minority outlets which are available in the housing market area.” 24 CFR 200.620(a). These regulations additionally require applicants to submit affirmative fair housing marketing plans, to be approved by HUD and made available for public inspection. 24 CFR 200.625. Applicants who fail to comply with these requirements are “liable to sanctions.” 24 CFR 200.635; see also 24 CFR 108.50.

The compliance procedures under these regulations are extensive. Ninety days before engaging in sales or rental marketing activities, applicants must “submit a Notification of Intent to Begin Marketing to the monitoring office.” 24 CFR 108.15. The monitoring office reviews reports, monitors AFHM plans, and refers matters to the civil rights or compliance reviewing office for possible
