Background

On March 6, 2014, the President, invoking the authority of, inter alia, the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701 et seq.), issued Executive Order (E.O.) 13660, "Blocking Property of Certain Persons Contributing to the Situation in Ukraine" (79 FR 13493, March 10, 2014). In E.O. 13660, the President determined that the actions and policies of persons including persons who have asserted governmental authority in the Crimean region without the authorization of the Government of Ukraine that undermine democratic processes and institutions in Ukraine; threaten its peace, security, stability, sovereignty, and territorial integrity; and contribute to the misappropriation of its assets, constitute an unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security and foreign policy of the United States, and declared a national emergency to deal with that threat.

The President subsequently issued E.O. 13661 of March 16, 2014, "Blocking Property of Additional Persons Contributing to the Situation in Ukraine" (79 FR 15535 March 19, 2014), and E.O. 13662 of March 20, 2014, "Blocking Property of Additional Persons Contributing to the Situation in Ukraine" (79 FR 16169, March 24, 2014), both of which expanded the scope of the national emergency declared in E.O. 13660. On May 8, 2014, OFAC published the Ukraine Related Sanctions Regulations, 31 CFR part 589 (which have since been reissued and renamed the Ukraine-/Russia-Related Sanctions Regulations), to implement E.O. 13660, E.O. 13661, and E.O. 13662 (79 FR 26365, May 8, 2014).

On September 12, 2014, pursuant to authorities delegated from the Secretary of the Treasury, the Director of OFAC issued Directive 4 under E.O. 13662. Directive 4, as originally issued,¹ prohibited, among other things, the provision, exportation, or reexportation, directly or indirectly, of goods, services (except for financial services), or technology by U.S. persons or within the United States in support of exploration or production for deepwater, Arctic offshore, or shale projects that have the potential to produce oil in the Russian Federation, or in maritime area claimed by the Russian Federation and extending from its territory, and that involve any person determined to be subject to Directive 4, its property, or its interests in property.

Also on September 12, 2014, OFAC, in consultation with the Department of State, issued GL 2, pursuant to E.O. 13662, to authorize, through 12:01 a.m. eastern daylight time, September 26, 2014, certain activities prohibited by Directive 4 under E.O. 13662 that are ordinarily incident and necessary to the wind down of operations, contracts, or other agreements involving persons determined to be subject to Directive 4 and that were in effect prior to September 12, 2014.

On December 19, 2014, the President, in order to take additional steps to address the Russian occupation of the Crimea region of Ukraine, issued E.O. 13685, "Blocking Property of Certain Persons and Prohibiting Certain Transactions With Respect to the Crimea Region of Ukraine" (79 FR 77357, December 24, 2014), pursuant to the national emergency declared in E.O. 13660 and expanded by E.O. 13661 and E.O. 13662.

On August 31, 2016, OFAC, in consultation with the Department of State, issued GL 10, pursuant to E.O. 13685, to authorize, through 12:01 a.m.

¹Directive 4, as originally issued, was replaced and superseded by an amended version of Directive 4, issued October 31, 2017.

eastern daylight time, October 1, 2016, certain transactions and activities otherwise prohibited pursuant to E.O. 13685, that are ordinarily incident and necessary to divest or transfer holdings in PJSC Mostotrest, a person blocked pursuant to E.O. 13685, to a non-U.S. person.
