SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises ("the Guidelines") constitute a set of voluntary recommendations to multinational enterprises on general principles and policies that OECD adhering Governments agree constitute responsible business conduct, including separate chapters on information disclosure, employment and industrial relations, environment, combating bribery, consumer interests, science and technology, competition, and taxation.

OECD members and other governments that have adhered to the OECD Declaration on International Investment and Multinational Enterprises, which includes the Guidelines, are obligated to establish a national contact point for the purpose of promoting the Guidelines among multinational enterprises operating in and from its territories, serving as a clearing house for inquiries and comments about implementation of the Guidelines, and discussing with concerned parties matters covered by the Guidelines.

The OECD established in 2000 procedural guidance to assist NCPs in meeting their responsibilities. This guidance is set out in the "Decision of the Council on the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises." For this and additional information about the role and function of the U.S. NCP, please see the State Department Web site (<http://www.state.gov/usncp/>) and for more general information on the role of NCPs, the OECD Web site (http://www.oecd.org/document/60/0,3343,2649_34889_1933116_1_1_1_1,00.html).
