DEPARTMENT OF STATE

[Public Notice: 12685]

Global Magnitsky Human Rights Accountability Act Annual Report

SUMMARY: This notice contains the text of the report required by the Global Magnitsky Human Rights Accountability Act.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Andrew Self, Senior Advisor, Bureau of Economic and Business Affairs, Email: SelfAH@state.gov, Phone: (202) 412-3586.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On March 12, 2025, the Acting Under Secretary of State for Political Affairs approved the following report pursuant to the Global Magnitsky Human Rights Accountability Act (Pub. L. 114-328, Title XII, Subtitle F) (“the Act”), which is implemented and built upon by Executive Order 13818 of December 20, 2017, “Executive Order Blocking the Property of Persons Involved in Serious Human Rights Abuse or Corruption” (E.O. 13818). The text of the report follows:

Pursuant to section 1264 of the Act, and consistent with E.O. 13818, the Secretary of State, in consultation with the Secretary of the Treasury, submits this report on the implementation of the Act during the 2024 reporting period.

The Global Magnitsky sanctions program is the United States’ flagship foreign policy tool for promoting accountability for human rights abuse and corruption globally. The U.S. government implements and builds upon the Act under E.O. 13818, Blocking the Property of Persons Involved in Serious Human Rights Abuse or Corruption, issued on December 20, 2017. In 2024, the United States designated 70 foreign persons under the Global Magnitsky sanctions program, bringing the total foreign persons designated under the program to over 740. Global Magnitsky designations in 2024 represent the most geographically expansive set of designations to date, including targets in over 19 countries from nearly every major geographic region.

Throughout 2024, the Global Magnitsky sanctions program was used to advance U.S. interests and foreign policy goals. During the reporting period, State and Treasury worked together to pursue designations in furtherance of several anti-corruption and human rights thematic priorities. These priorities included disrupting transnational corruption, including enablers of corruption, and promoting accountability for human rights abuses involving violence against women and girls, arbitrary detention, and forced labor. Action on these priorities helped address some of the most pervasive and egregious manifestations of corruption and human rights abuse around the world. Additionally, these priorities reflected State and Treasury’s assessment of which corruption and human rights-related typologies economic sanctions are impactful in addressing.

Corruption-related designations in 2024 included designations combatting public corruption in Guatemala, Guyana, Paraguay, and Zimbabwe and designations disrupting a global corruption network involved in gold smuggling and money laundering. Human rights-related designations included designations promoting accountability for the arbitrary detention of a human rights defender in Russia and U.S. locally employed staff in Yemen; egregious acts of violence against women and girls in Haiti and Uzbekistan; violent abuses against peaceful protesters in Georgia; forced labor and human trafficking in Cambodia; and political repression in Zimbabwe.

Global Magnitsky Designations by Country

In 2024, the Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of State and the Attorney General, imposed economic sanctions on the following 70 foreign persons (individuals and entities) pursuant to E.O. 13818 (presented alphabetically by country):

Cambodia

- Ly Yong Phat: Ly Yong Phat (Ly) was designated on September 12, 2024, for being a foreign person who is responsible for or complicit in, or has directly or indirectly engaged in, serious human rights abuse, related to the treatment of trafficked workers subjected to forced labor in online scam centers. Ly is a Cambodian senator and tycoon who owns L.Y.P. Group, which owns O-Smach Resort. Concurrent with the designation of Ly, the following entities were designated:

- O-Smach Resort: O-Smach Resort was designated on September 12, 2024, for being a foreign person who is
