

Non-response Follow-up (NRFU)—An operation developed to obtain completed questionnaires from housing units for which the Census Bureau did not receive a completed questionnaire in mail census areas (mailout/mailback, update/leave). Enumerators visit addresses to collect the information.

Residence Rules—Rules that respondents and the Census Bureau use to determine where people should be counted. They are meant to insure that everyone is counted once and in the right place. The 2004 Census Test questionnaire will include re-worded instructions to help respondents apply these rules.

Whole-household Duplicates—Everyone living at a specific address is counted more than once.
