A. Background

This Federal Register notice is being issued by the Office of Foods within the Office of the Commissioner soliciting a sole source grant application from PFSE for funding in support of strategic planning for consumer education. PFSE, begun in May 1997, is the only organization that unites industry associations, consumer and public health groups, academia and government (the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), the Centers for Disease and Control and Prevention, and the Food and Drug Administration) to educate the public about safe food handling and preparation. In 2009, PFSE had 18 association and non-profit contributing members. PFSE, a non-profit organization, is the creator and steward of the "Fight BAC! Campaign", a food safety education program developed using scientifically based recommendations and resulting from an extensive consumer research process. In 2007, PFSE joined with USDA to create the "Be Food Safe" platform—designed to bring a new look to the four core safe food handling practices and to bring food safety reminders to places where people shop for food. "Fight BAC! Campaign" materials are fully accessible online and utilized by consumers, teachers, dietitians, public health officials, and extension agents across the nation. FDA is one of several government agencies that has signed a Memorandum of Understanding with PFSE.
