

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORING, RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING, AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

STORAGE:

Documents are stored in electronic form and as paper records.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Electronic records are retrievable by student's name, personal identifier, class, course, division student registered with, category of student, employer, location, job, e-mail address, student's supervisor, student's city, state, or zip. Paper records are retrievable by class, course, or student name.

SAFEGUARDS:

Access to records is limited to those who process the records for the specific routine uses stated above (e.g., personnel in TSI and various federal agencies that have a specific need for the information). Various methods of computer security limit access to records in the automated database. Recent paper records are stored in file cabinets in their respective division. Archived paper records are stored in a TSI long term storage facility. Access to this facility is limited to TSI's Operations Support Division.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Most paper records are destroyed after 10 years. Electronic records are stored for an indefinite period of time.
