

ILAB published its first TVPRA List on September 30, 2009, and issued updates annually from 2010 through 2013. In 2014, ILAB began publishing the TVPRA List every other year, pursuant to changes in the law (see 22 U.S.C. 7112(b)). ILAB can also publish more frequent updates, at its discretion. For a copy of previous editions of the TVPRA List and other related materials, see ILAB's TVPRA web page at <https://www.dol.gov/agencies/ilab/reports/child-labor/list-of-goods>.

III. Executive Order No. 13126 (E.O. 13126) declared that it was "the policy of the United States Government . . . that the executive agencies shall take appropriate actions to enforce the laws prohibiting the manufacture or importation of goods, wares, articles, and merchandise mined, produced, or manufactured wholly or in part by forced or indentured child labor." The E.O. 13126 List is intended to ensure that U.S. federal agencies do not procure goods made by forced or indentured child labor. Under procurement regulations, federal contractors who supply products on the E.O. 13126 List must certify that they have made a good faith effort to determine whether forced or indentured child labor was used to produce the items supplied. Pursuant to E.O. 13126, and following public notice and comment, DOL published in the January 18, 2001, Federal Register, a final list of products ("E.O. 13126 List"), identified by country of origin, that the Department, in consultation and cooperation with the Departments of State (DOS) and Treasury [relevant responsibilities are now within the Department of Homeland Security (DHS)], had a reasonable basis to believe might have been mined, produced or manufactured with forced or indentured child labor (66 FR 5353). In addition to the E.O. 13126 List, the Department also published on January 18, 2001, "Procedural Guidelines for Maintenance of the List of Products Requiring Federal Contractor Certification as to Forced or Indentured Child Labor," which provide for maintaining, reviewing, and, as appropriate, revising the E.O. 13126 List (66 FR 5351).

Pursuant to Sections D through G of the Procedural Guidelines, the E.O. 13126 List may be updated through consideration of submissions by individuals or through ILAB's own initiative.

DOL has officially revised the E.O. 13126 List seven times, most recently on March 25, 2019, each time after public notice and comment as well as consultation with DOS and DHS.

The current E.O. 13126 List, Procedural Guidelines, and related information can be accessed on the internet at <https://www.dol.gov/agencies/ilab/reports/child-labor/list-of-products>.

Information Requested and Invitation to Comment: Interested parties are invited to comment and provide information regarding these reports. DOL requests comments on or information relevant to updating the findings and suggested government actions for countries reviewed in the TDA Report, assessing each country's individual advancement toward eliminating the worst forms of child labor during the current reporting period compared to previous years, and maintaining and updating the TVPRA and E.O. Lists, including information on goods produced with inputs that are produced with forced labor or child labor. For more information on the types of issues covered in the TDA Report, please see "TDA Guidance Questions" in the appendix of the report. Materials submitted should be confined to the specific topics of the TDA Report, the TVPRA List, and the E.O. 13126 List. DOL will generally consider sources with dates up to five years old (i.e., data not older than January 1, 2015). DOL appreciates the extent to which submissions clearly indicate the time period to which they apply. In the interest of transparency in our reporting, classified information will not be accepted. Where applicable, information submitted should indicate its source or sources, and copies of the source material should be provided. If primary sources are utilized, such as research studies, interviews, direct observations, or other sources of quantitative or qualitative data, details on the research or data-gathering methodology should be provided. Please see the TDA Report, TVPRA List, and the E.O. 13126 List for a complete explanation of relevant terms, definitions, and reporting guidelines employed by DOL. Per our standard procedures, submissions will be published on the ILAB web page at <https://www.dol.gov/agencies/ilab/public-submissions-child-labor-forced-labor-reporting>.

This notice is a general solicitation of comments from the public.
