

- expanding the range of skills and outcomes that interventions focus on to improve communication
- expanding the range of evaluation and outcome measures that can reliably assess individual needs

NIDCD now seeks to understand the broader needs and priorities of:

- the larger community of minimally verbal/non-speaking people (including and beyond autistic people)
- professionals and others who support minimally verbal/non-speaking people
- researchers focusing on communication in minimally verbal/non-speaking people
- any other interested party

NIDCD is interested in receiving comments on any or all of the following questions:

1. What are the biggest communication needs for minimally verbal/non-speaking people?
2. What are the greatest roadblocks to supporting and improving communication for minimally verbal/non-speaking people?
3. What are the highest priority research targets to advance communication for minimally verbal/non-speaking individuals?
4. What are the best ways to increase partnerships between researchers and minimally verbal/non-speaking people to guide research projects?
