

First Round De Minimis Consent Decree. Under the Supplemental Consent Decree, each of the named defendants would pay a proportionate share of all past and future response costs incurred and to be incurred at the Site, plus a premium. In return for these payments, each defendant would receive a covenant not to sue by the United States, subject to certain reservations of rights, and contribution protection from suit by other potentially responsible parties. However, because two of the settlors/named defendants chose a lower settlement premium with a "reopener," their liability can be reopened in the event that Site future response costs exceed $26 million. The other twenty settlors/named defendants selected a higher settlement premium, with no "reopener" provision. The total recovery under this Consent Decree should be approximately $270,000.

The Department of Justice will receive for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication comments relating to this Supplemental Consent Decree. The Oeser Company*, Civil Action No. C05-1491-JCC (W.D. Washington) was lodged with the United States District Court for the Western District of Washington.
