

implement or oversee restoration of the natural resources injured by the Julie N spill in accordance with the Restoration Plan attached as Appendix B to the proposed consent decree. Pursuant to the Restoration Plan, the Trustees will use the funds to implement and oversee three restoration projects: a project intended to reduce the discharge of oil and grease from the streets of Portland into the Fore River, a project that will enhance a portion of the Scarborough Marsh, and a project that will involve the construction of a one-mile segment of a larger trail system in Portland. The Settling Defendant has already paid the trustees their costs of assessment, including $410,000 to the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, $53,057.09 to U.S. Department of the Interior, and $24,531.79 to the State of Maine.

The Settling Defendant has agreed not to file claims against the United States in connection with the Julie N spill, but has reserved the right to submit claims for removal costs or damages with the Oil Spill Liability Trust Fund under Section 1013 of OPA, 33 U.S.C. § 2713, to the extent permitted by Section 1008 of OPA, 33 U.S.C. § 2708.

The Department of Justice will receive, for a period of forty-five (45) days from the date of this publication, comments relating to the proposed consent decree, including comments concerning the Restoration Plan attached as Appendix B to the proposed consent decree. Any comments should be addressed to Lois J. Schiffer, Assistant Attorney General, U.S. Department of Justice, Environment and Natural Resource Division, P.O. Box 7611, Washington, D.C. 20044. Comments should state "Attention: Don Frankel" and refer to United States v. Amity Products Carriers, Inc., DOJ Ref. Number 90-5-1-1-4390.

The proposed consent decree may be examined at the offices of the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Maine, East Tower, Sixth Floor, One Hundred Middle Street Plaza, Portland, ME 04101 (contact David Collins, 207-780-3257). DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Notice of Lodging of Consent Decree Pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act

Consistent with Departmental policy, 28 C.F.R. § 50.7, notice is hereby given that a proposed Consent Decree in United States v. Robert Odabashian, et al. was lodged with the United States District Court for the Western district of Tennessee on December 17, 1999 (95-2361 G/Bre). The United States filed a First Amended Complaint pursuant to Section 107 of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 ("CERCLA"), as amended, against five defendants, including Chevron Chemical Company, LLC ("Chevron"). The First Amended Complaint alleges that the defendants are liable under Section 107 of CERCLA for costs incurred by the United States Environmental Protection Agency during a cleanup of the Pulvair Corporation Superfund Site in Millington, Tennessee. The proposed Consent Decree settles the liability of Chevron. Under the Consent Decree, Chevron agrees to reimburse the United States in the amount of $100,000.

The Department of Justice will receive, for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication, comments relating to the proposed Consent Decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General for the Environment and Natural Resources Division, U.S. Department of Justice, P.O. Box 7611, Washington, D.C. 20044; and refer to United States v. Robert Odabashian, et al., DOJ Ref. #90-11-3-1474.

The proposed settlement agreement may be examined at the Office of the United States Attorney, Suite 410, 200 Jefferson Avenue, Memphis, TN 38103, and at the office of the Environmental Protection Agency, Region 4, 61 Forsyth Street, S.W., Atlanta, GA 30303. A copy of the proposed Consent Decree may be obtained in person or by mail from the Department of Justice Consent Decree Library, P.O. Box 7611, Washington, D.C. 20044. In requesting a copy please refer to the referenced case and enclose a check in the amount of $4.25 (25 cents
