DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Office of the Secretary, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Administration

Statement of Organization, Functions, and Delegations of Authority; Office of the Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs

Part A of the HHS Organization Manual Office of the Secretary, Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) is being amended at Chapter AP, "Office of the Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs (ASPA)," as last amended at 70 FR 61621-22, dated Oct. 25, 2005. Over the past several years, ASPA has been refining its organizational structure to improve its strategic and operational communication capacities to more effectively support the mission and strategic priorities of the Department. A substantive element of this change has been a shift from a purely operational structure focusing on defined services to one that builds a whole-of-ASPA approach that draws on all communication skills across each of three key portfolios—health care, public health, and human services. The proposed organizational realignments will, therefore, update and revise ASPA's structure to reflect this more functional, strategic operational approach. The changes are described below:

I. Under Part A, Chapter AP, Section AP.00 Mission, delete in its entirety and replace with the following:

AP.00 Mission: The ASPA serves as the Secretary's principal counsel on public affairs, leading efforts across the Department to promote transparency, accountability and access to critical public health and human services information to the American people. The Office of the Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs conducts national public affairs programs, provides centralized leadership and guidance for public affairs activities within HHS' Staff and Operating Divisions and regional offices, manages the Department's digital communications and administers the Freedom of Information and Privacy Acts. The Division leads the planning, development and implementation of emergency incident communications strategies and activities for the Department. The ASPA reports directly to the HHS Secretary.

II. Under Part A, Chapter AP, Section AP.10 Organization, delete in its entirety and replace with the following:

AP.10 Organization. The Office of the Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs, headed by the Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs (ASPA) who reports to the Secretary, supports public affairs efforts for three primary issue areas: Public Health, Human Services, and Health Care. ASPA consists of the following organizations:

- The Office of the Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs, Agency Chief FOIA Officer
- The Office of the Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary
 - Strategic Planning Division
 - Speechwriting Division
- The Office of the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Public Health
- The Office of the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Health Care
- The Office of the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Human Services
 - Broadcast Services Division
 - Digital Communications Division
- Executive Officer/Deputy Agency Chief FOIA Officer
 - Business Operations Division
 - Administrative Operations Division
 - FOIA/Privacy Act Division

III. Under Section AP.20 Functions, delete in its entirety, and replace with the following:

A. The Office of the Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs (AP)—Provides executive leadership, policy direction, and management strategy for the Department's public affairs programs and activities. Counsels and acts for the Secretary and the Department in carrying out responsibilities under statutes, Presidential directives, and Secretarial orders for informing the general public, specialized audiences, HHS employees, and other Federal employees about the programs, policies, and services of the Department. Establishes and enforces policies and practices which produce an accurate, clear, efficient, and consistent flow of information to the general public and other audiences about departmental programs and activities.
