If consultants and/or partnerships are proposed, is there a reasonable justification for their inclusion in the project, and a clear structure to ensure effective coordination? Is the proposed budget realistic, does it provide a sufficient cost detail/narrative, and does it represent good value relative to the anticipated results?

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The prohibited transaction class exemption applicable to certain transactions between investment companies and employee benefit plans (PTE 77-4) permits an employee benefit plan to purchase and sell shares of an open-end investment company (mutual fund) when a fiduciary with respect to the plan is also the investment advisor for the mutual fund. There are three basic disclosure requirements incorporated within PTE 77-4. The first requirement is to disclose any redemption fees in the current prospectus of the open-end mutual fund. The second requirement is that, at the time of the purchase or sale of such mutual fund shares, an independent fiduciary receive a copy of the current prospectus issued by the open-end mutual fund and full written disclosure of the investment advisory fees charged to or paid by the plan and the open-end mutual fund to the investment advisor. The third requirement is that the independent fiduciary (1) be notified of any changes in the fees and (2) give written approval for the plan to purchase or sell affected mutual fund shares or the plan to continue possession of any such mutual fund shares acquired before the fee changes.

The ICR has been classified as a revision, because—pursuant to an advisory opinion request—the DOL interprets the term, prospectus, in PTE 77-4 to include a summary prospectus if the summary prospectus meets revised Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) disclosure provisions for mutual funds, including the Summary Prospectus Rule. See 74 FR 4546 (January 26, 2009). Pursuant to the revised SEC disclosure provisions, mutual funds also are required to send the full prospectus to the investor upon an investor's request and to provide the full prospectus on-line at a specified internet site. For additional substantive information about this ICR, see the related notice published in the Federal Register on February 14, 2013 (78 FR 10638).

This information collection is subject to the PRA. A Federal agency generally cannot conduct or sponsor a collection of information, and the public is generally not required to respond to an information collection, unless it is approved by the OMB under the PRA and displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. See 5 CFR 1320.5(a) and 1320.6. The DOL obtains OMB approval for this information collection under Control Number 1210-0049. Existing information collection requirements submitted to the OMB will continue to apply while the ICR undergoes review. Revisions would only take effect under the PRA upon OMB authorization.
