SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4), requires federal agencies such as OSHRC to publish in the Federal Register notice of any new or modified system of records.

In accordance Executive Order 14043, "Executive Order on Requiring Coronavirus Disease 2019 Vaccination for Federal Employees" (Sept. 9, 2021), each agency is required to "implement, to the extent consistent with applicable law, a program to require COVID-19 vaccination for all of its Federal employees, with exceptions only as required by law." The Safer Federal Workforce Task Force—created by the president to provide federal agencies with guidance on issues related to the COVID-19 pandemic—subsequently issued guidance regarding reasonable accommodation requests, for both medical and religious reasons, that may constitute "legally required exception[s] to the vaccination requirement." More specifically, under certain circumstances, federal law—such as section 501 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, 29 U.S.C. 791; and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. 2000e et seq.—may require an agency to provide a reasonable accommodation for an employee or applicant who, because of a disability or a sincerely held religious belief, practice, or observance, requests and is granted an exception from the COVID-19 vaccine mandate.

In the event that an employee or applicant requests a reasonable accommodation, records supporting that request may be collected and maintained by the agency, in accordance with 29 CFR part 1614. The agency may also collect and maintain records concerning requests for reasonable accommodations made in other circumstances that are unrelated to the vaccine mandate set forth in Executive Order 14043.

The notice for OSHRC-9, provided below in its entirety, is as follows.
