

employees approved and cleared to receive permissions to Salesforce and have PIV access and clearance. Users who are contractors are provided training during onboarding to use the system and federal employees receive updated training for Salesforce and its dashboards periodically as needed. Access Control (AC), Identification and Authentication (IA) and Systems and Communication Protection (SC) security controls are in place to prevent unauthorized access. Individual systems desk procedures document the process for establishing, activating, and modifying IDs. System Owners define Groups and account types. System Point of Contact (POC) assigns group membership and determines need-to-know validation. The Program Manager verifies user identification. Role Based Access Control are also used. All internal USDA access is managed through the USDA Enterprise Entitlement Management System for requesting internal access.

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES:

Individuals seeking to gain access to a record in this system of records should contact the system manager at the address listed above. Provide the system manager with the necessary particulars such as full name, date of birth, work address, and country of citizenship. Requesters must also reasonably specify the record contents sought. The request must meet the requirements of the regulations at 34 CFR 5b.5, including proof of identity. All requests for access to records must be in writing and should be submitted to the system manager at the address listed above. A determination on whether a record may be accessed will be made when a request is received.

CONTESTING RECORD PROCEDURES:

Individuals seeking to contest or amend information maintained in the system should direct their request to the above listed System Manager and should include the reason for contesting it and the proposed amendment to the information with supporting information to show how the record is inaccurate. A request for contesting records should contain: Name, address including zip code, name of the system of records, year of records in question, and any other pertinent information to help identify the data requested.
