Application Details

Permit Application: 2024-006

1. Applicant: Megan Cimino, University of California at Santa Cruz, 1156 High Street, Santa Cruz, CA 95064.

Activity for Which Permit is Requested: Take, Harmful Interference, Enter Antarctic Specially Protected Areas (ASPAs), and Import into USA. The applicant would conduct research as part of the Palmer Station Long-Term Ecological Research Program (Palmer LTER) relating variability in seabird ecology to changes in the physical and biological environment, especially sea ice, snow conditions and the availability of prey. The research would comprise two complimentary components at summer breeding colonies of seabirds and in their pelagic marine foraging environment. The applicant would continue long term-research efforts to assess how annual environmental variability affects seabird diets, breeding success, growth rates, survival and recruitment, behavior, population trends, foraging success and seasonal dispersal. The applicant would engage in take by capture and release in order to (1) census populations and mark breeding territories; (2) capture, mark, band and/or weigh adults, chicks and eggs; (3) obtain diet samples by stomach lavage, by screening contents of terrestrial sediment traps and/or by collecting regurgitated or defecated prey items; (4) place biologging devices on individuals; (5) place instrumented artificial eggs under incubating individuals; (6) obtain tissue samples from adults and chicks (e.g., preen gland oil, blood, feathers, egg yolk, toenails); (7) collect addled/infertile eggs no longer being incubated; (8) use GPS/GIS technologies to update existing breeding habitat maps; (9) salvage dead specimens for educational purposes; and (10) collect fecal samples using cloacal swabs. The applicant would use all/some of the above methods on the following species: Adelie Penguin, Chinstrap Penguin, Gentoo Penguin, Brown Skua, South Polar Skua, Southern Giant Petrel, Blue-Eyed Shag, Kelp Gull, Snowy Sheathbill. All seabirds involved in this research would be released unharmed. Up to four time-lapse cameras attached to poles on square bases anchored by rocks would be deployed to monitor penguin occupation patterns. To conduct the research, the applicant would enter the following Antarctic Specially Protected Areas: ASPA 107, Dion Islands; ASPA 113, Litchfield Island; ASPA 115, Lagotellerie Island; ASPA 117, Avian Island; ASPA 139, Biscoe Point; ASPA 170, Charcot Island; and ASPA 176 Rosenthal Islands.

Location: Palmer Station area, Antarctic Peninsula; ASPA 107, Dion Islands; ASPA 113, Litchfield Island; ASPA 115, Lagotellerie Island; ASPA

117, Avian Island; ASPA 139, Biscoe Point; ASPA 170, Charcot Island; and ASPA 176 Rosenthal Islands.

Dates of Permitted Activities: October 1, 2023—September 30, 2028.

Attachment—Order

In the Matter of General License Holders

EA-23-083

ORDER SUSPENDING GENERAL LICENSE AUTHORITY TO EXPORT SPECIAL NUCLEAR MATERIAL, SOURCE MATERIAL, AND DEUTERIUM FOR NUCLEAR END USE TO THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

(Effective Immediately)

The licensees that are subject to this order are authorized by the NRC through the general licenses granted in title 10 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) sections 110.21, 110.22, and 110.24, pursuant to Sections 54, 64, and 109b of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (AEA), to export special nuclear material, source material, and deuterium for nuclear end use to the People's Republic of China.

The Executive Branch of the United States Government has determined that suspending the general license authority under 10 CFR part 110 for exports of special nuclear material, source material, and deuterium for nuclear end use to the People's Republic of China is necessary to improve oversight and control of these exports. For this reason, the Executive Branch has requested that the NRC suspend the general license authority in 10 CFR 110.21, 110.22, and 110.24 for any exports to destinations in the People's Republic of China. It is the view of the Executive Branch that this action is necessary to further the national security interests of the United States and to enhance the common defense and security, and is consistent with the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended.

Accordingly, pursuant to Sections 161b., 161i., 183, and 186 of the AEA, 10 CFR 110.20 (b) and (f) and 10 CFR 110.50(a)(1) and (2), NRC general license authority to export special nuclear material, source material, and deuterium for nuclear end use to the People's Republic of China under Sections 54, 64, and 109b of the AEA and 10 CFR 110.21, 110.22, and 110.24 is suspended, effective immediately.¹ This suspension will remain in effect until further notice. Any person wishing to export special nuclear material, source material, or deuterium for nuclear end use to the People's Republic of China must apply for a specific license in accordance with 10 CFR 110.31.

For the Nuclear Regulatory Commission.
