Re: Notice of Debarment

File No. EB-11-IH-1075

Dear Mr. White:

The Federal Communications Commission ("Commission") hereby notifies you that, pursuant to Section 54.8 of its rules, you are prohibited from participating in the schools and libraries universal service support mechanism ("E-Rate program") for three years from either the date of your receipt of this Notice of Debarment, or of its publication in the Federal Register, whichever is earlier in time ("the Debarment Date").¹

On July 27, 2011, the Commission's Enforcement Bureau ("Bureau") sent you a Notice of Suspension and Initiation of Debarment Proceedings ("Notice of Suspension")² that was published in the Federal Register on August 25, 2011.³ The Notice of Suspension suspended you from participating in activities associated with or relating to the schools and

White, Notice of Suspension and Initiation of Debarment Proceedings, 26 FCC Rcd 10526 (Inv. & Hearings Div., Enf. Bur. 2011) (Attachment 1). libraries universal service support mechanism and described the basis for initiating debarment proceedings against you, the applicable debarment procedures, and the effect of debarment.⁴

As described in the Notice of Suspension, you were suspended from participating in activities associated with or relating to the schools and libraries universal service support mechanism as a result of your conviction for conspiring with others to defraud and obtain money from the E-Rate Program by controlling the application, bidding, and implementation process of the E-Rate program for schools located in four states.⁵ As further described in the Notice of Suspension, you conspired with owners of Global Network Technologies, Inc. ("GNT") to offer and deliver $28,500 in bribes to school officials in exchange for steering E-Rate contract work to GNT.⁶ In furtherance of your scheme, you accepted fraudulent billing invoices from a school employee for services never provided by that employee,⁷ and concealed material facts concerning the source of your payments to school officials.⁸ For your role in the fraudulent scheme, you were sentenced to serve one year and one day in federal prison, followed by two years of supervised release for conspiring to defraud the E-Rate program.⁹ The court also ordered you to pay a $4,000 criminal fine.¹⁰ Pursuant to Section 54.8(c) of the Commission's rules, your conviction of criminal conduct in connection with the E-Rate program serves as a basis for your debarment.¹¹

In accordance with the Commission's debarment rules, you were required to file with the Commission any opposition to your suspension or its scope, or to your proposed debarment or its scope, no later than thirty (30) calendar days from either the date of your receipt of the Notice of Suspension or of publication of the Notice of Suspension in the Federal Register, whichever is earlier in time.¹² The Commission did not receive any such opposition.

For the foregoing reasons, you are debarred for three years from the Debarment Date.¹³ During this debarment period, you are excluded from participating in any activities associated with or related to the E-Rate program, including the receipt of funds or discounted services through the schools and libraries support mechanism, or consulting with, assisting, or advising applicants or service providers regarding the schools and libraries support mechanism.¹⁴

Theresa Z. Cavanaugh
