

economy, the production of like or directly competitive articles in the United States, or United States consumers.

In particular, the Commission is interested in comments that:

- (i) Explain how the articles potentially subject to the recommended orders are used in the United States;
- (ii) Identify any public health, safety, or welfare concerns in the United States relating to the recommended orders;
- (iii) Identify like or directly competitive articles that complainants, their licensees, or third parties make in the United States which could replace the subject articles if they were to be excluded;
- (iv) Indicate whether complainants, complainants' licensees, and/or third party suppliers have the capacity to replace the volume of articles potentially subject to the recommended exclusion order and/or a cease and desist order within a commercially reasonable time; and
- (v) Explain how the LEO and CDO would impact consumers in the United States.

Written submissions from the public must be filed no later than by close of business on April 14, 2020.

Persons filing written submissions must file the original document electronically on or before the deadlines stated above and submit 8 true paper copies to the Office of the Secretary by noon the next day pursuant to section 210.4(f) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 210.4(f)). Submissions should refer to the investigation number ("Inv. No. 337-TA-1154") in a prominent place on the cover page and/or the first page. (See Handbook for Electronic Filing Procedures, https://www.usitc.gov/documents/handbook_on_filing_procedures.pdf). Persons with questions regarding filing should contact the Secretary (202-205-2000). Any person desiring to submit a document to the Commission in confidence must request confidential treatment. All such requests should be directed to the Secretary to the Commission and must include a full statement of the reasons why the Commission should grant such treatment. See 19 CFR 201.6. Documents for which confidential treatment by the Commission is properly sought will be treated accordingly. All information, including confidential business information and documents for which confidential treatment is properly sought, submitted to the Commission for purposes of this Investigation may be disclosed to and used: (i) By the Commission, its employees and Offices, and contract personnel (a) for developing or maintaining the records of this or a related proceeding, or (b) in internal investigations, audits, reviews, and evaluations relating to the programs, personnel, and operations of the Commission including under 5 U.S.C. Appendix 3; or (ii) by U.S. government employees and contract personnel, solely for cybersecurity purposes. All contract personnel will sign appropriate nondisclosure agreements. All non-confidential written submissions will be available for public inspection at the Office of the Secretary and on EDIS.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in part 210 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR part 210).

By order of the Commission.
Issued: March 11, 2020.

Lisa Barton,

Secretary to the Commission.

BILLING CODE 2210–55–P

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

[CPCLO Order No. 002–2020]

Privacy Act of 1974; Systems of Records

AGENCY: United States Department of Justice.

ACTION: Notice of a Modified System of Records.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974 and Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular No. A–108, notice is hereby given that the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ or Department), proposes to modify a system of records titled, “Justice Federal Docket Management System (Justice FDMS),” JUSTICE/DOJ–013. The DOJ proposes to modify Justice FDMS to incorporate the changes resulting from the transfer by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) to the General Services Administration (GSA) of the Regulations.gov internet portal and accompanying centralized docket system. Changes to the system include adding an additional routine use pertaining to GSA’s access to agency records in its role as manager of the e-Rulemaking Program platform, supplementing and clarifying the administrative, technical and physical safeguards applied to the platform, and noting the changes to the location of the system itself.

DATES: In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4) and (11), this system of records modification will go into effect upon publication, subject to a 30-day period in which to comment on the proposed changes to the routine uses, described in more detail below. Please submit any comments by April 16, 2020.

ADDRESSES: The public, the OMB, and Congress are invited to submit any comments by mail to the United States Department of Justice, Office of Privacy and Civil Liberties, ATTN: Privacy Analyst, 145 N St. NE, Suite 8W.300, Washington, DC 20530; by facsimile at 202–307–0693; or by email at privacy.compliance@usdoj.gov. To ensure proper handling, please reference the above CPCLO Order No. on your correspondence.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Andria Robinson-Smith, 202–514–0208, U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Privacy and Civil Liberties, 145 N St. NE, Suite 8W.300, Washington, DC 20530.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Effective September 30, 2019, the EPA transferred to the GSA control of the Regulations.gov internet portal and accompanying centralized docket system. The GSA has now assumed operational control of the Regulations.gov internet portal and centralized docket system, operating it for federal agencies e-rulemaking processes. As these records are governed by the Justice FDMS SORN, the DOJ proposes to modify its existing SORN to reflect the resulting from the transfer of certain DOJ records to the GSA’s portal and centralized docket system.

To the extent the DOJ routinely retrieves comments using the personally identifying information of the commenters, the Justice FDMS is covered under the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, 5 U.S.C. 552a (2018) (“Privacy Act”). Accordingly, individuals accessing the GSA’s on-line platform to submit a comment or supporting materials in connection with a DOJ rulemaking routinely provide their names and contact information on the GSA electronic platform; and the DOJ routinely reviews these comments. Accordingly, the Department is publishing this modified SORN to satisfy the applicable requirements of the Privacy Act, to the extent they apply.

This modification includes the following changes: (1) DOJ has reformatted this SORN to conform to current OMB guidelines; (2) DOJ has made administrative edits and renumbered the existing routine uses in the Justice FDMS SORN; (3) DOJ has updated the existing routine uses for this system to reflect current DOJ model routine uses; (4) DOJ added an additional routine use authorizing disclosure of the records in this system of records to the GSA when needed for purposes of the GSA’s management of the GSA’s Federal Rulemaking Management Program; (5) DOJ has added the Administrative Procedures Act, 5 U.S.C. 553, and 5 U.S.C. 301 to the list of authorities for maintenance of the Justice FDMS; (6) DOJ has updated the administrative, technical, and physical safeguards applied to the system of records, consistent with guidance from the GSA; (7) DOJ has updated the access, contesting records, and notification procedures to conform to existing DOJ practices; and (8) the system location has been changed to reflect the move to the GSA. The entire notice is being republished in full for ease of reference.

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), the Department has provided a report to OMB and Congress on this notice of a modified system of records.

Dated: March 10, 2020.

Peter A. Winn,

Acting Chief Privacy and Civil Liberties Officer, United States Department of Justice.
