SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Abstract

The Census Bureau's Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Office receives an estimated 250 Privacy Act requests annually. In order to protect the public's privacy and adhere to Privacy regulations, the Census Bureau's FOIA Office developed the Certification of Identity (Form BC-300) to assist with accurately identifying and providing personnel records to requesters. The Form BC-300 asks requesters to provide general information such as name, address, date of birth (D.O.B.), description of the request, etc. The form provides added protection in managing sensitive records regulated under the Privacy Act. This form will be hosted by the Census Bureau as a Common Form.

II. Method of Collection

The Privacy Act of 1974 (the Privacy Act), as amended, 5 U.S.C. 552a, establishes a code of fair information practices that governs the collection, maintenance, use, and dissemination of information about individuals that is maintained in systems of records by federal agencies. Regulations at 15 CFR part 4, subpart B prescribe how an individual must make a request for access to his or her own personal records to the Census Bureau under the Privacy Act. Generally, one may submit a request for access to his or her own personal records by appearing in person, electronically through the FOIA public website, or by writing to the Census FOIA Office. The regulations require that the requestor describe the records in enough detail to enable Census Bureau personnel to locate the applicable system of records containing the information with a reasonable amount of effort. 15 CFR 4.4(c). A request made under the Privacy Act should include the information listed at 15 CFR 4.24(b), including whenever possible, a description of the records sought, the time periods they were compiled, and the name or identifying number of each system of records where they are kept. Furthermore, requestor must provide documentation or proof of identity. 15 CFR 4.24(d). These documents include information such as the requestor's full name, current address, D.O.B., and place of birth, and where required, a notarized or sworn statement of identity. All Privacy Act requests not made in person must contain a verification of identity that either is notarized or signed under penalty of perjury. 15 CFR 4.24(d). The Census Bureau is prohibited by federal law from disclosing any information contained in the records, except upon written request from the person to whom the information pertains or to a legal representative.

The Form BC-300 is used to collect general information in order to sufficiently identify a respondent to ensure accurate records are provided to the right person as stated in 15 CFR 4.24(d). The Form BC-300 asks for name, address, D.O.B., description of request, and signature, in accordance with 15 CFR 4.24(d). The form explains the purpose and includes the Privacy Act Statement, the disclosure statement, the authorities under which the Census Bureau is authorized to collect the information, and an explanation of burden to the requester. The Form BC-300 is a "public use" form meaning that this form is used for all public and internal agency requests for personal records.

The Form BC-300 is accessible electronically and is printable. The Census Bureau plans to develop the form as a fillable form that can be submitted online to help minimize the requester's processing time for filling out and submitting the form. The Census Bureau will receive all Form BC-300s either electronically submitted through the Census FOIA website, FOIAonline.gov, by fax, or via postal mail. In all circumstances, proper identification of the requestor must be obtained to ensure distribution of accurate records to the correct individuals. Providing this information is voluntary; however, if not provided, the Census Bureau will be unable to provide the requested personal records.
