SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-53403; File No. SR-Amex-2006-04]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; American Stock Exchange LLC; Notice of Filing of Proposed Rule Change and Amendment No. 1 Thereto Relating to Procedures for Denying Initial and Continued Listing

March 2, 2006.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Act"),¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on January 23, 2006, the American Stock Exchange LLC ("Amex" or "Exchange") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III below, which Items have been prepared by the Amex. On February 22, 2006, Amex filed Amendment No. 1 to the proposed rule change.³ The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change, as amended, from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The Exchange proposes to add new Section 127 and amend Sections 101, 401, 402, 710, 1002, and 1009 of the Amex Company Guide to increase the transparency of the process associated with staff determinations to deny the initial or continued listing of a company's securities on the Amex.

The text of the proposed rule change is available on the Amex's Web site at <http://www.amex.com>, at the Amex's principal office, and at the Commission's Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Amex included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Amex has prepared summaries, set forth in Sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

Sections 101 and 1002 of the Amex Company Guide provide broad discretionary authority to the Exchange to deny initial or continued listing to a company, the condition or business of which raises public interest or other qualitative concerns that could undermine investor confidence in Amex listed securities. The Exchange proposes to add new Section 127 and amend Sections 101 and 1002 of the Amex Company Guide to clarify the circumstances in which the Exchange generally uses this authority and provide greater transparency to listed companies and applicants.⁴

The proposed rule and rule amendments would specify that the Exchange has authority to deny initial listing to an applicant, impose additional or more stringent criteria on initial or continued listing of a company's securities, or delist a company's securities under the following circumstances:

- The listed company or applicant, or an individual associated with the listed company or applicant, has a history of regulatory misconduct;⁵

⁵ Such individuals would typically be an officer, director, substantial security holder or consultant to the issuer. The Exchange proposes in new Section 127, Commentary .01 that an interest consisting of more than either 5% of the number of shares of common stock or 5% of the voting power outstanding of an issuer or party shall be considered a substantial interest and cause the holder of such an interest to be regarded as a substantial security holder.
