General Description of Collection:

Respondents must establish and maintain procedures designed to monitor and ensure their compliance with the requirements of the Bank Secrecy Act and the implementing regulations promulgated by the Department of Treasury at 31 CFR chapter X. Respondents must also keep records evidencing that they have provided training for appropriate personnel. There is no change in the method or substance of the collection. The overall increase in burden hours is a result of economic fluctuation. In particular, the total number of respondents has increased while the hours per response remain the same.

Request for Comment: Comments are invited on: (a) Whether the collections of information are necessary for the proper performance of the FDIC's functions, including whether the information has practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the estimates of the burden of the information collections, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collections of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology. All comments will become a matter of public record.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act: Anti-Doping and Medication Control Rule

AGENCY: Federal Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice of Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA) final rule; delay of effectiveness.

SUMMARY: The Federal Trade Commission modifies the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority's Anti-Doping and Medication Control Rule by extending its date of effectiveness until May 22, 2023.

DATES: As of May 3, 2023, the date of effectiveness for the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority's Anti-Doping and Medication Control Rule is delayed to May 22, 2023.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: John H. Seesel (202-326-2702), Attorney, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Reason for Delay of HISA's Final Rule

The Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act of 2020, 15 U.S.C. 3051-3060 ("Act"), tasks a self-regulatory nonprofit organization, the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority ("Authority"), with developing proposed rules on a variety of subjects. See 15 U.S.C. 3053(a). Those proposed rules take effect only if approved by the Federal Trade Commission, see 15 U.S.C. 3053(b)(2), which must approve the proposed rules if it finds that they are consistent with the Act and with applicable rules approved by the Commission, see 15 U.S.C. 3053(c)(2). The Commission, however, may by rule abrogate, add to, or modify the Authority's rules "as the Commission finds necessary or appropriate to ensure the fair administration of the Authority, to conform the rules of the Authority" to the Act's requirements or applicable rules approved by the Commission, "or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of this Act." Id. sec. 3053(e).

On March 27, 2023, the Commission issued an Order ("Order") approving the Authority's proposed Anti-Doping and Medication Control ("ADMC") Rule. Pursuant to that Order, the ADMC Rule took effect immediately upon the Commission's approval, i.e., on March 27, 2023.¹

On March 31, 2023, however, the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas determined that the Commission had violated the Administrative Procedure Act by declaring the ADMC Rule effective immediately upon the issuance of the Commission's Order approving the Rule. Viewing the Commission's March 27 Order as tantamount to an agency's issuance of a substantive rule, the court found that the Commission should have delayed the date of effectiveness for the ADMC Rule for 30 days following approval. The court accordingly enjoined implementation or enforcement of the ADMC Rule until May 1, 2023.²

The district court's March 31 order has given rise to substantial uncertainty regarding the criteria and procedures under which anti-doping and medication control protocols will be implemented as the Thoroughbred horseracing industry nears the Triple Crown events of May 6 (Kentucky Derby), May 20 (Preakness Stakes), and June 10 (Belmont Stakes). With the date of effectiveness for the Authority's nationally applicable ADMC Rule
