DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITYU.S. Customs and Border Protection*19 CFR Part 102*[CBP Dec. 08–42]*Technical Corrections Relating to the Rules of Origin for Goods Imported Under the NAFTA and for Textile and Apparel Products

AGENCIES: Customs and Border Protection, Department of Homeland Security; Department of the Treasury.

ACTION: Final rule; technical corrections.

SUMMARY: This document sets forth technical corrections to part 102 of the U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) regulations to reflect recent changes in the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States. The affected provisions in part 102, which are based in part on specified changes in tariff classification, comprise a codified system used for determining the country of origin of goods imported under the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) and for the country of origin of textile and apparel products (other than those of Israel).

DATES: This final rule is effective on October 30, 2008.FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Heather K. Pinnock, Tariff Classification and Marking Branch, Regulations and Rulings, Office of International Trade, (202) 572–8828.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Background

On June 6, 1996, CBP published in the Federal Register (61 FR 28932) as T.D. 96–48, a document which adopted as a final rule, amendments to the CBP regulations establishing specific rules for determining when the country of origin of a good is one of the parties to the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) as required by Annex 311 of the NAFTA (as opposed to the rules for preference purposes in Chapter 4 and Annex 401). In order to simplify and standardize country of origin determinations for purposes of the NAFTA, the rules of origin in T.D. 96–48 set forth a codified method that uses specified changes in tariff classification (tariff shifts) and other rules to express the substantial transformation concept. Under this codified method, the substantial transformation that an imported good must undergo in order to be deemed a good of the country where the change occurred is expressed through these rules.

On July 1, 1996, shortly after the publication of T.D. 96–48, CBP also gave effect to section 334 of the Uruguay Round Agreements Act by implementing rules of origin applicable to all textile and apparel imports except for purposes of determining whether goods originate in Israel (see T.D. 95–69, published in the Federal Register on September 5, 1995 (60 FR 46188)).

The specific changes in tariff classification requirements for determining the country of origin of imported goods (other than textiles and apparel products covered by § 102.21) under the provisions of the NAFTA are set forth in § 102.20 of the CBP regulations (19 CFR 102.20) except for textiles and apparel products covered by § 102.21. Section 102.20 prescribes the tariff shift rules that are used to determinewhether a good is considered a good of a NAFTA country (United States, Canada or Mexico). The rules of origin relating to trade in textile and apparel products, other than those that are products of Israel, are found in § 102.21.

In addition, we note that CBP published in the Federal Register (73 FR 43385) on July 25, 2008, a notice of proposed rulemaking in which it proposed to amend the CBP regulations to establish uniform rules governing CBP determinations of the country of origin of imported merchandise. Specifically, CBP proposed that the rules in 19 CFR part 102 be applicable for all purposes for which "product of" or "country of origin" criterion is prescribed under customs and related laws, the navigation laws of the United States, and the CBP regulations, except for the purpose of determining whether a good other than a textile or apparel good is entitled to preferential treatment under the United States' free trade agreements with Israel and Jordan, or unless otherwise specified, or as otherwise provided for by statute. The technical corrections to the tariff shift rules set forth in this document will enable interested parties to properly evaluate the impact, if any, of the proposed rulemaking on the country of origin of their goods.

Need for Correction

Pursuant to section 1205 of the Omnibus Trade and Competitiveness Act of 1988 (codified at 19 U.S.C. 3005), the International Trade Commission (ITC) is required to keep the HTSUS under continuous review and prepare investigations proposing modifications to the HTSUS to the President. In April 2006, the ITC issued Investigation No. 1205–6, Proposed Modifications to the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States, Publication No. 3851. The modifications proposed in the report were effective on February 3, 2007, pursuant to Presidential Proclamation 8097 which was published in the Federal Register on January 4, 2007 (72 FR 453).

As a result of the 2007 modifications to the HTSUS, certain tariff provisions have been added or removed, and certain goods have been transferred, for tariff classification purposes, to different or newly-created tariff provisions. The changes to the HTSUS involve product coverage and/or numbering of certain headings and subheadings and are not intended to have any other substantive effect. Accordingly, this document makes technical corrections to §§ 102.20 and 102.21 in order for the regulations to conform the tariff shift rules to the current version of the HTSUS. In addition, this document amends §§ 102.20(a) and 102.21(a), (b), (c), and (d) by removing the word “shall” each place it appears and adding, in its place, the word “will” or “must” as appropriate.

The examples set forth below illustrate the need for the technical corrections to §§ 102.20 and 102.21 described above.

Example 1: Pursuant to the existing terms of § 102.20(n), the tariff shift rule for heading 7416, HTSUS, permits, in relevant part, a tariff shift to this heading “from any other heading.” Prior to the 2007 amendments to the HTSUS, copper springs were classified in subheading 7416.00, HTSUS, and therefore were subject to the above tariff shift rule. This rule is satisfied when copper springs of heading 7416, HTSUS, are processed from other articles of copper from any other heading. Under the 2007 amendments to the HTSUS, however, heading 7416 was deleted and copper springs were moved from subheading 7416.00 to subheading 7419.99, HTSUS. As a result, copper springs (classified in subheading 7419.99, HTSUS) which are processed from other articles of copper of subheading 7419.99 would not presently satisfy the tariff shift rule set forth above. In order to maintain the original result of the tariff shift rule for copper springs that had been classified within heading 7416, HTSUS, the tariff shift rule in § 102.20(n) must be amended to provide for a change to copper springs of subheading 7419.99, HTSUS, from any other subheading, including from any other good of subheading 7419.99, HTSUS.

Example 2: Under the 2007 amendments to the HTSUS, a new subheading was created at 2910.40, HTSUS, for a product referred to as “dieltrin (ISO, INN).” Prior to the 2007 amendments, this product was classified in the basket “other” provision under subheading 2910.90, HTSUS. As new subheading 2910.40, HTSUS, is not included in the rules set forth in § 102.20(f), it is not possible to determine the origin of goods classifiable under this provision using the current regulations. Accordingly, § 102.20(f) must be amended in order to add subheading 2910.40, HTSUS, and the applicable tariff shift rule must also be amended in order to provide for the new subheading. It should be noted that these technical corrections to § 102.20(f) will produce the same result as when dieltrin (ISO, INN) was classified under subheading 2910.90, HTSUS, in the 2006 HTSUS.

Example 3: Under current § 102.21(e), there is a rule for subheadings 6209.10.0000 through 6209.20.5035, HTSUS. Under the 2007 amendments to the HTSUS, subheading 6209.10, HTSUS, which covers babies’ garments and clothing accessories of wool or fineanimal hair, was deleted, with the goods moving to subheading 6209.90. As a result, the tariff shift rule for heading 6209.10.0000–6209.20.5035, HTSUS, has been renumbered to reflect that subheading 6209.10, HTSUS, was deleted, and reflect the new range of tariff subheadings. As the rule for subheadings 6209.20.5045 through 6209.90.9000, HTSUS, is the same as the rule for subheading 6209.10, HTSUS, no change in the rule is necessary.

Inapplicability of Notice and Delayed Effective Date

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(B) and (d)(3), CBP has determined that it would be impracticable and contrary to the public interest to delay publication of this rule in final form pending an opportunity for public comment and that there is good cause for this final rule to become effective immediately upon publication. The technical corrections contained in this document merely conform the tariff shift rules in the regulations to the current HTSUS and will facilitate trade by ensuring that country of origin determinations made using the regulations are consistent with the HTSUS.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

Because this document is not subject to the notice and public procedure requirements of 5 U.S.C. 553, it is not subject to the provisions of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.).

Executive Order 12866

These amendments do not meet the criteria for a “significant regulatory action” as specified in Executive Order 12866.

Signing Authority

While the subject matter of this document pertains to the authority of the Secretary of the Treasury to approve regulations relating to certain revenue functions (see 19 CFR Part 0), CBP retains authority pursuant to Treasury Directive 28–01 to sign a document making nonsubstantive technical corrections to a previously issued regulation. For this reason, the CBP Commissioner is the proper official to sign this document.

The Office of Children’s Issues (CI) in the Department’s Bureau of Consular Affairs serves as the primary point of contact for abduction cases and is responsible for processing all Hague Convention applications seeking the return of children wrongfully removed or retained in the United States from any other Hague Convention contracting state. In addition, CI is responsible for facilitating access rights under the Hague Convention. In FY 2007, CI processed approximately 575 cases involving 821 children who were allegedly abducted from or retained outside the United States in other Hague contracting countries. Another 355 cases involving 518 children who were allegedly abducted to or retained in the United States from other Hague contracting countries were also processed in FY2007 (Hague incoming cases).

The processing of incoming Hague Convention applications requires case officers to communicate with foreign Central Authorities about incoming cases, to determine the whereabouts of children wrongfully taken to the United States, to attempt to promote the voluntary return of abducted children, and to facilitate the initiation of judicial proceedings with a view toward
