

required for those individuals seeking access to the Security Identification Area or Sterile Area. TSA is amending this PIA to reflect the amended requirements.

4. System: Transportation Worker Identification Credential Program Final Rule.

Component: Transportation Security Administration.

Date of approval: December 29, 2006.

TSA is publishing a joint Final Rule with the United States Coast Guard to implement the Transportation Worker Identification Credential (TWIC) program to provide a biometric credential that can be used to confirm the identity of workers in the national transportation system. For each person subject to the program, TSA will conduct a security threat assessment before issuing the credential. TSA will collect identifying information, supporting documentation, a digital photograph, and fingerprints, as more fully set forth in section 1.1 of the PIA. The PIA reflects the TWIC Program as set out in the Final Rule and follows on the PIA for the TWIC Prototype, which was published at <http://www.dhs.gov> on November 5, 2004, and the PIA for the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (NPRM), which was published at <http://www.dhs.gov> on May 9, 2006. The updated PIA reflects changes made to the TWIC program in response to public comment on the NPRM and lessons learned from the TWIC Prototype.
