

On September 13, 2005, complainant Trend Micro filed a complaint for enforcement proceedings of the Commission's remedial orders. On October 7, 2005, the Commission determined to institute formal enforcement proceedings based on the complaint to determine whether Fortinet is in violation of the Commission's cease and desist order issued in the investigation, and what if any enforcement measures are appropriate.

On October 26, 2005, Fortinet filed a request for an advisory opinion under Commission Rule 210.79 (19 CFR 210.79) that would declare that Fortinet's FortiGate products incorporating Fortinet's newly redesigned anti-virus software do not infringe claims 4, 7, 8, and 11–15 of the '600 patent and, therefore, are not covered by the Commission's cease and desist order and limited exclusion order, issued on August 8, 2005.

The Commission has examined Fortinet's request for an advisory opinion and has determined that the request complies with the requirements for institution of an advisory opinion proceeding under Commission rule 210.79(a). Accordingly, the Commission has determined to institute an advisory opinion proceeding and has referred Fortinet's request to the presiding ALJ for issuance of an initial advisory opinion.

This action is taken under the authority of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, 19 U.S.C. 1337, and Commission rules 210.75(a) and 210.79(a), 19 CFR 210.75(a), 210.79(a).

Issued: December 16, 2005.

By order of the Commission.

Marilyn R. Abbott,

Secretary to the Commission.

Notice is hereby given that on December 2, 2005, a proposed Third Round De Minimis Consent Decree in United States v. Aetna, Inc., et al. No. 05–15, and United States v. Chevy Chase Cars, et al., C.A. No. 05–1222. In the Airco Co., et al. action, the United States seeks the recovery of response costs incurred in connection with the Breslube Penn Superfund Site. The complaint alleges that each of the named defendants arranged for the treatment and/or disposal of wastes containing hazardous substances at the Site, within the meaning of 42 U.S.C. 9607(a)(3). The complaint names 20 defendants, each of which have signed the proposed Third Round De Minimis Consent Decree. Under the Airco Co., et al. Decree, each of the named defendants would pay a proportionate share of all past and future response costs incurred and to be incurred at the Site, plus a premium. In return for these payments, each defendant would receive a covenant not to sue by the United States, subject to certain reservations of rights, and contribution protection from suit by other potentially responsible parties. The total recovery under this Consent Decree should be approximately $412,000.
