

of private persons directly affected by the Government's activities, and whether or not they have historical or other value.

Besides identifying the Federal agencies and any subdivisions requesting disposition authority, this public notice lists the organizational unit(s) accumulating the records or indicates agency-wide applicability in the case of schedules that cover records that may be accumulated throughout an agency. This notice provides the control number assigned to each schedule, the total number of schedule items, and the number of temporary items (the records proposed for destruction). It also includes a brief description of the temporary records. The records schedule itself contains a full description of the records at the file unit level as well as their disposition. If NARA staff has prepared an appraisal memorandum for the schedule, it too includes information about the records. Further information about the disposition process is available on request.

The NRC maintains the Enforcement Policy on its Web site at <http://www.nrc.gov/about-nrc/regulatory/enforcement/current.html>.

II. Background

The purpose of this document is twofold: (1) To solicit comments on the effectiveness of the September 30, 2010, revision to the Enforcement Policy; and (2) to solicit comments on specific proposed changes to the next revision to the Policy.

On December 30, 2009, in SECY-09-0190 (ADAMS Accession Number ML093200520), the staff submitted to the Commission a proposed major revision of the Enforcement Policy. In SECY-09-0190 the staff committed to provide an opportunity for public comments on the revision after it had been in effect for about 18 months. On August 27, 2010, in SRM-SECY-09-0190 (ADAMS Accession Number ML102390327), the Commission approved the revised Policy and directed the NRC staff to evaluate certain items for inclusion in the next proposed revision to the Policy. On September 30, 2010, the NRC published the revised Policy in the Federal Register. The revised Policy has been in use for approximately one year and the staff is now soliciting comments on the effectiveness of the changes reflected in the September 30, 2010, revision.

In addition to the direction given to the staff in SRM-SECY-09-0190, the staff is evaluating other Policy changes that it may present to the Commission for approval and inclusion in the next Policy revision.

The staff previously solicited comments on other SRM-SECY-09-0190 items in documents published in the Federal Register on August 9, 2011 (76 FR 48919), and September 6, 2011 (76 FR 54986). It was the NRC staff's intent that this document and the
