

subsidiaries of BHCs, uninsured state agencies and branches of foreign banks, commercial lending companies owned or controlled by foreign banks, savings and loan holding companies, and Edge and agreement corporations.

Estimated number of respondents: Recordkeeping, 1; Reporting, 831; Disclosure, 831.

Estimated average hours per response: Recordkeeping, 24 hours; Reporting, 9 hours; Disclosure, 27 hours.

Estimated annual burden hours: Recordkeeping, 24 hours; Reporting, 7,479 hours; Disclosure, 22,437 hours.

General description of report: The FR 4100 is the Board's information collection associated with the Interagency Guidance on Response Programs for Unauthorized Access to Customer Information and Customer Notice ("ID-Theft Guidance" or "Guidance"). The ID-Theft Guidance was published in the Federal Register in March 2005.¹ The ID-Theft Guidance, which applies to financial institutions, was issued in response to developing trends in the theft and accompanying misuse of customer information. The Guidance includes certain voluntary reporting, recordkeeping, and disclosure provisions.

Legal authorization and confidentiality: The FR 4100 is authorized by section 501(b) of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act,² which requires the Board, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency to establish appropriate standards for financial institutions to develop and implement an information security program designed to protect their customers' information and a response program that specifies actions to be taken when the institution suspects or detects that unauthorized individuals have gained access to customer information systems.

Because the provisions under the FR 4100 are contained in guidance, which is nonbinding, the provisions are voluntary.³

The disclosure provisions of FR 4100 are not confidential. The records maintained under recordkeeping provisions of FR 4100 would be maintained at each banking organization, and the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") would only be implicated if the Board obtained such records as part of the examination or supervision of a banking organization.

In the event the records are obtained by the Board as part of an examination or supervision of a financial institution, this information may be considered confidential pursuant to exemption 8 of the FOIA, which protects information contained in "examination, operating, or condition reports" obtained in the bank supervisory process. In addition, the information obtained by the Board under the FR 4100 may also be kept confidential under exemption 4 for the FOIA, which protects commercial or financial information obtained from a person that is privileged or confidential.⁴

Consultation outside the agency: Representatives from the Board, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency responsible for the reporting, recordkeeping, and disclosure requirements associated with the ID-Theft Guidance have reviewed their respective information collections and agreed that no revisions to the collections are necessary at this time.

Proposal Under OMB Delegated Authority To Extend for Three Years, Without Revision, the Following Information Collection

Report title: Recordkeeping and Disclosure Requirements Associated with Securities Transactions Pursuant to Sections 208.34(c), (d), and (g) of Regulation H.

OMB control number: 7100-0196.

Frequency: Event-generated, quarterly.

Respondents: State member banks (SMBs), SMB officers/employees.

Estimated number of respondents: SMBs (de novo): 1; SMBs with trust departments: 209; SMBs without trust departments: 545; SMB officers/employees: 2,389.

Estimated average hours per response: SMBs (de novo): Recordkeeping, 40 hours. SMBs with trust departments: Recordkeeping, 2 hours; disclosure, 16 hours. SMBs without trust departments: Recordkeeping, 15 minutes; disclosure, 5 hours. SMB officers/employees: Reporting, 2 hours.

Estimated annual burden hours: SMBs (de novo): Recordkeeping, 40 hours. SMBs with trust departments: Recordkeeping, 10,032 hours; disclosure, 40,128 hours. SMBs without trust departments: Recordkeeping, 3,815 hours; disclosure, 32,700 hours. SMB officers/employees: Reporting, 19,112 hours.

General description of report: Section 15C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Act), establishes federal regulation of brokers and dealers of government securities, including banks and other financial institutions, and directs those brokers and dealers to keep certain records.¹ These requirements are implemented for SMBs by sections 208.34(c), (d), and (g) of the Board's Regulation H, which require that non-exempt state member banks² effecting securities transactions for customers establish and maintain a system of records of these transactions, furnish confirmations of transactions to customers that disclose certain information, and establish written policies and procedures relating to securities trading.

Legal authorization and confidentiality: The FR H-3 is authorized pursuant to Section 23 of the Act,³ which empowers the Board to make rules and regulations implementing those portions of the Act for which it is responsible. Because these records and disclosures would be maintained at each banking organization, the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) would only be implicated if the Board obtained such records as part of the examination or supervision of a banking organization.

² The requirements of section 208.34 of Regulation H apply to all SMBs that effect more than 500 government securities brokerage transactions per year, unless the institution has filed a written notice, or is required to file notice, with the Board that it acts as a government securities broker or a government securities dealer. These requirements also do not apply to activities of foreign branches of SMBs; activities of nonmember, non-insured trust company subsidiaries of bank holding companies; or activities that are subject to regulations promulgated by the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board. In addition, SMBs with an annual average of less than 200 securities transactions for customers over the prior three calendar years (exclusive of transactions in U.S. government and agency obligations) are exempt from these Regulation H recordkeeping and disclosure requirements. See 12 CFR 208.34(a)(1)(i)-(iv).

³ 15 U.S.C. 78w. The Board also has the authority to require reports from SMBs (12 U.S.C. 248(a) and 324).

In the event the records are obtained by the Board as part of an examination or supervision of a financial institution, this information may be considered confidential pursuant to exemption 8 of the FOIA, which protects information contained in “examination, operating, or condition reports” obtained in the bank supervisory process.⁴ In addition, the information may also be kept confidential under exemption 4 for the FOIA, which protects commercial or financial information obtained from a person that is privileged or confidential.⁵
