

out their investment objectives with exchange-traded products.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

CBOE does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

No written comments were solicited or received with respect to the proposed rule change.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing proposed rule change does not: (i) Significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (ii) impose any significant burden on competition; and (iii) become operative for 30 days after the date of this filing, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate if consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest, the proposed rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act<sup>8</sup> and Rule 19b-4(f)(6) thereunder.<sup>9</sup>

As for permitting FLEX Options on Corporate Debt Security Options, the Exchange notes that new products brought up and approved by the SEC during the past couple of years (e.g., Range Options, binary options, Credit Options) have contained rules designating them as FLEX eligible. As a result, the Exchange believes the proposed change is consistent with existing rules for products and conforms the rules for Corporate Debt Security Options to other existing product rules. For the foregoing reasons, the Exchange believes the rule filing qualifies for expedited effectiveness as a "non-controversial" rule change under paragraph (f)(6) of Rule 19b-4 of the Act.

At any time within 60 days of the filing of such proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, Nasdaq included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. Nasdaq has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

On March 12, 2009, Nasdaq filed a proposed rule change to revise the rules relating to the qualification, listing, and delisting of companies listed on, or applying to list on, Nasdaq to improve the organization of the rules, eliminate redundancies and simplify the rule language.<sup>5</sup> These new listing rules (the "Listing Rules") were effective April 13, 2009. Nasdaq has observed that the March filing introduced inadvertent changes in the Listing Rules related to the Global Market listing requirements for preferred stock and secondary classes of securities, and to the governance requirements applicable to management investment companies registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940.<sup>6</sup> This filing modifies those rules to revert to the requirements as they previously existed in the listing rules (the "Old Rules"), and to make certain conforming changes.<sup>7</sup>

Nasdaq is proposing technical changes to conform Listing Rule 5415(b) and Listing Rules 5460(a) and (b) with the meaning of Old Rules 4420(k) and 4450(h), respectively, and to make them consistent with each other and the analogous Capital Market rules. Old Rules 4420(k) and 4450(h) provided quantitative initial and continued listing requirements for preferred stock and secondary classes of common stock. These rules also allowed the application of the respective initial and continued listing requirements applicable to common stock if the issuer's common stock or common stock equivalent security was not listed on either Nasdaq or another national securities exchange. In adopting Listing Rule 5415(a), Nasdaq replaced the term "national securities exchange" with the newly-defined term "Covered Security,"<sup>8</sup> which was also used in the analogous Capital Market Listing Rules 5510 and 5555. Nasdaq did not, however, make conforming changes to Listing Rules 5415(b) and 5460 to replace the old term with the new. Further, in the case of Rule 5415(b), rule text inadvertently omits the word "not," which is necessary for the rule to retain its meaning. In the case of Rules 5460(a) and (b), the term "Covered Security" was not used at all. Accordingly, Nasdaq is proposing technical changes to Listing Rule 5415(b), and Listing Rules 5460(a) and (b) to make them consistent with each other and Rules 5610 and 5655, the analogous Capital Market rules.

<sup>8</sup> Listing Rule 5005(a)(9) defines a Covered Security as "a security described in Section 18(b) of the Securities Act of 1933."

Under Old Rule 4350(a)(2) and IM-4350-6, a management investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940<sup>9</sup> was exempt from Old Rule 4350(c), which contained the requirements for a company to have a majority independent board, hold executive sessions, and for independent directors to make certain compensation and nomination decisions, and Old Rule 4350(n), which contained the code of conduct requirement. Old Rule 4350(a)(2) was moved to Listing Rule 5615(a)(5) and exempts a registered management investment company from Listing Rule 5605(b), which contains the requirement for a company to have a majority independent board and executive sessions, and Listing Rule 5610, which contains the code of conduct requirement. However, the part of Old Rule 4350(c) which relates to the requirement for independent directors to make certain compensation and nomination decisions was moved to Listing Rules 5605(d) and (e), both of which are not cross-referenced in Listing Rule 5615(a)(5). As a consequence, Listing Rule 5615(a)(5) no longer contains the full range of exemptions that were previously provided under Old Rule 4350(a)(2). Accordingly, Nasdaq is proposing to amend the cross-reference found in Listing Rule 5615(a)(5) and IM-5615-4 to include Listing Rules 5605(d) and (e), thus conforming Listing Rule 5615(a)(5) with Old Rule 4350(a)(2). Nasdaq also proposes to expand the explanation of the cross references in the rule, consistent with the style of the Listing Rules.

2. Statutory Basis

Nasdaq believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 6 of the Act,<sup>10</sup> in general and with Sections 6(b)(5) of the Act,<sup>11</sup> in particular in that it is designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to foster cooperation and coordination with persons engaged in regulating, clearing, settling, processing information with respect to, and facilitating transactions in securities, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest. The proposed rule change is designed to revert to the previously approved requirements of certain listing standards that were inadvertently changed when adopting the new Listing Rules, and to complete certain conforming changes to the Listing Rules that were not fully implemented with their adoption.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

Nasdaq does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

No written comments were either solicited or received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing proposed rule change does not: (i) Significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (ii) impose any significant burden on competition; and (iii) become operative for 30 days after the date of this filing, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate if consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest, the proposed rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)<sup>12</sup> of the Act and Rule 19b-4(f)(6) thereunder.<sup>13</sup>

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.
