

of Rescission of Antidumping Duty Changed Circumstances Review, 71 FR 16120 (Mar. 30, 2006). However, 19 CFR 351.213(d)(1) also provides that the Department may extend the ninety day time limit for withdrawing the request for an administrative review if we determine that it is reasonable to do so. In this case, RDR withdrew its request for a changed circumstances review on July 30, 2010, which is beyond ninety days of the date of initiation. However, we note that no interested party, including the petitioner, has objected to RDR's withdrawal request. Additionally, the Department has not expended significant resources conducting this review. Therefore, we determine that it is reasonable to extend the ninety day time limit in this instance. Consequently, the Department has accepted RDR's withdrawal request in this case as timely and is now rescinding this antidumping duty changed circumstances review. U.S. Customs and Border Protection will continue to suspend entries of subject merchandise at the appropriate cash deposit rate for all entries of certain frozen warmwater shrimp from India.

This notice also serves as a reminder to parties subject to administrative protective order (APO) of their responsibility concerning the disposition of proprietary information disclosed under the APO in accordance with 19 CFR 351.305(a)(3). Timely written notification of the return or destruction of APO materials or conversion to judicial protective order is hereby requested. Failure to comply with regulations and the terms of an APO is a sanctionable violation.

This notice is issued and published in accordance with 19 CFR 351.213(d)(4) and sections 751(b) and 777(i)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended.

Dated: August 17, 2010.

Edward C. Yang,

Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary for Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Operations.
