

loan secured by a building on real property located in an area identified by FEMA as subject to special flood hazards, and various other notices to borrowers, servicers and FEMA. The Riegle Community Development Act requires that each institution also provide a copy of the notice to the servicer of the loan (if different from the originating lender). Section 100239 of the Biggert-Waters Flood Insurance Reform Act of 2012 requires each federal banking agency (including the FDIC), and the Farm Credit Administration, to adopt implementing regulations to direct regulated lending institutions to accept “private flood insurance,” as defined by the Biggert-Waters Act. A lending institution would be required to implement policies and procedures to comply with the Biggert-Waters Act provision and verify in writing that a private insurance policy satisfies the criteria included in the definition or document findings that separate required criteria have been met when accepting a private flood insurance policy in satisfaction of the mandatory flood insurance purchase requirement of the Flood Disaster Protection Act. The institution must also maintain records to permit examination staff to ascertain how the institution has met the requirements of the regulation.

The FDIC has reviewed its previous submission related to the PRA and has updated its methodology to align with the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency’s corresponding information collection (1557–0326). The decrease in the estimated annual burden of 409,935 hours is the result of this change in methodology.

SYSTEM LOCATION:

Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, 250 E Street SW, Washington, DC 20427.

SYSTEM MANAGER(S):

Doug Jones, Director of Information Technology, email djones@fmcs.gov, or send mail to Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, 250 E Street SW, Washington, DC 20427, Attn: Doug Jones.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, 29 U.S.C. 172, et seq.; The National Labor Relations Act, 29 U.S.C. 151, et seq.; Administrative Dispute Resolution Act, 5 U.S.C. 571–584; Negotiated Rulemaking Act of 1990, 5 U.S.C. 561–570; the Federal Labor Relations Act, 5 U.S.C. 7119; and Departmental Regulations, 5 U.S.C. 301.

PURPOSE(S) OF THE SYSTEM:

This system is maintained for the purposes of assessing parties’ needs, engaging parties to a dispute in finding resolution, collecting and handling data for use in negotiations and mediations, engaging parties in virtual meetings, teaching problem-solving skills, and creating and receiving evaluations from parties on the quality of services they receive from FMCS by collecting information used during live training sessions for educational purposes.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

The system encompasses all individuals participating in training and evaluation sessions, both virtually and in-person, with an FMCS Mediator, the FMCS staff referenced in the evaluations, and FMCS staff processing the evaluations. Also, this includes parties to mediation.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

The system consists of records created or compiled during live training sessions and for purposes of evaluating FMCS’s services. The system also includes FMCS employee and client responses to questions, surveys, and scenarios. These records include contact information for participants, and participant responses. System access records are also included (login information for users and FMCS staff). Specifically, these engagement programs might collect information names, participant responses to open-ended questions, contributions to a brainstorming activity in training or mediation, ideas that represent possible dispute resolution options, and other data. In short, the data that arrives through these engagement tools is the same or similar information that would be available to an FMCS mediator in any in-person meeting with clients and is handled with the same degree of confidentiality as a mediator would handle paper or traditional written data-gathering methods.

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

Information in this system of records is provided by FMCS clients or training registrants, conference attendees, and FMCS staff assigned to help process the survey results.
