On April 9, 1992, the Commission issued a final rule defining key terms in the Act. Among the terms defined by the Commission was "electronic or electromechanical facsimile." The Commission defined this term by reference to the Johnson Act, 15 U.S.C. 1171(a)(2) and (3). See 25 CFR 502.8. To ensure consistency with developments in the case law and to ensure a uniform approach to this term by the Commission and the courts, the Commission, on June 22, 2001, proposed and sought public comment on removal of 25 CFR 502.8 and on using, instead, the plain language interpretation that has been preferred by the courts. The initial comment period expired on July 23, 2001. The United States Department of Justice has formally requested additional time to prepare comments on the proposed regulation. In addition, several comments were received after the initial comment period ended. The Commission has decided to extend the comment period until August 21, 2001.
