

success on the merits that claim 34 of the '310 patent is invalid as obvious, and to vacate the ALJ's finding that the public interest does not favor the issuance of temporary relief to complainant Tilia. The Commission also determined to deny complainant Tilia's request for oral argument on the temporary relief ID.

This action is taken under the authority of section 337(e) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337(e)), and section 210.66 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 19 CFR 210.66.

By order of the Commission.

Description: The Secretary has interpreted applicable sections of Federal law to require States to identify claimants who are most likely to exhaust their UI benefits and to provide reemployment services to expedite their return to suitable work. The ETA 9048 report provides a count of the claimants who were referred to Worker Profiling and Reemployment Services (WPRS) and a count of those who completed the services. A second report (ETA 9049) provides the subsequent collection of wage records which is a useful management tool for monitoring the
