Additionally, after having been given notice and an opportunity to respond in accordance with Section 766.23 of the

I. Factual Background

Based upon evidence submitted by BIS through its Office of Export Enforcement ("OEE"), I issued an Order on June 6, 2008, which was effective immediately and temporarily denied for 180 days the export privileges of the Galaxy Aviation Trade Company Ltd. ("Galaxy Aviation"), Hooshang Seddigh, Hamid Shaken Hendi, Hossein Jahan Peyma, as well as of Iran Air of Tehran, Iran, and Ankair of Istanbul, Turkey. Based on additional evidence submitted by BIS, on July 10, 2008, I issued a modified Order expanding the scope of the denial as to Respondent Ankair.² The TDO and modified TDO were published in the Federal Register on, respectively, June 17 and July 22, 2008.³

On July 22, 2008, BIS notified Yavuz Cizmeci, that it intended to add him as a Related Person to the TDO based on his position as Chief Executive Officer and a shareholder of Ankair in accordance with Section 766.23 of the Regulations. Mr. Cizmeci submitted a response through counsel opposing his addition to the TDO as a Related Person.

On August 27, 2008, Respondent Galaxy Aviation, along with Respondents Hooshang Seddigh, Hamid Shaken Hendi, and Hossein Jahan Peyma, filed an appeal of the TDO with an administrative law judge ("AU") pursuant to Section 766.24(e)(1)(i). In a one-page, unsworn letter, Galaxy Aviation and its shareholders claimed not to be involved in the reexport of the Boeing 747 as alleged by BIS. In a recommended decision dated September 16, 2008, the AU recommended that Respondents' motion be denied and that the TDO remain in effect in order to prevent future

² The original order only denied Ankair's export privileges involving Boeing 747, tail number TC-AKZ and manufacturer's serial number 24134. The modified Order expanded the scope of Ankair's denial to include all items subject to the Regulations.

³ 73 FR 34,249 (June 17, 2008); 73 FR 42,544 (July 22, 2008). On June 7, 2008, a copy of the TDO was provided to the Turkish Ministry of Foreign Affairs for service on Ankair. An additional copy was sent to Ankair by Federal Express on June 10, 2008.

¹ Evidence presented by Ankair shows that its legal corporate name is Dunyaya Bakis Hava Tasimaciligi AS, a/k/a Dunyaya Bakis Air Transportation Inc. ("DBHT"). DBHT is doing business as Ankair and therefore this order modifies Ankair's listing to properly reflect this information.
