YP Western Directory LLC Anaheim California Division Publishing Operations Group Including Workers Whose Unemployment Insurance (UI) Wages Are Paid Under YP Western Holdings LLC and/or YP Advertising LP and PBD Holdings, YP Subsidiary Holdings LLC, YP LLC, YP Holdings LLC, and Including On-Site Leased Workers From Zero Chaos, Anaheim, California; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. § 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on January 28, 2013, applicable to workers of YP Western Directory LLC, Anaheim California Division, Publishing Operations Group, including workers whose Unemployment Insurance (UI) wages are paid under YP Western Holdings LLC and/or YP Advertising LP, YP Subsidiary Holdings LLC, YP LLC, YP Holdings LLC and including on-site leased workers from Zero Chaos, Anaheim, California. The workers are engaged in activities related to the supply of sales operations and publishing operations functions, and are separately identifiable from other business units within YP Western Directory LLC. Therefore, the certification is limited to only those workers within the Publishing Operations Group who are located at (or report to) Anaheim, California. The notice was published in the Federal Register on February 15, 2013 (78 FR 11228).

At the request of a company official, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information from the company shows that some workers separated from employment at the Anaheim, California location of YP Western Directory LLC, Anaheim California Division, Publishing Operations Group had their wages reported through a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account under the name PBD Holdings.

Accordingly, the Department is amending this certification to include workers of the subject firm whose unemployment insurance (UI) wages are reported through PBD Holdings.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of the subject firm who were adversely affected by a shift in the supply of sales operations and publishing operation functions to a foreign country.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-82,250 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of YP Western Directory LLC, Anaheim, California Division, Publishing Operations Group, including workers whose Unemployment Insurance (UI) wages are paid under YP Western Holdings LLC and/or YP Advertising LP, and PBD Holdings, YP Subsidiary Holdings LLC, YP LLC, YP Holdings LLC, and including on-site leased workers from Zero Chaos, Anaheim, California, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after December 12, 2011, through January 28, 2015, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on the date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 13th day of March, 2014.

International Paper Company, Courtland Alabama Paper Mill, Printing & Communications Papers Division, a Subsidiary of International Paper Company, Including On-Site Leased Worker From Manpower and Western Express, Courtland, Alabama; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on February 6, 2014, applicable to workers of International Paper Company, Courtland Alabama Paper Mill, Printing & Communications Papers Division, a subsidiary of International Paper Company, including on-site leased workers from Manpower, Courtland, Alabama. The workers are engaged in activities related to the production of coated and uncoated freesheet paper, and are not separately identifiable by article produced. The notice was published in the Federal Register on February 24, 2014 (79 FR 10189).

At the request from the State of Tennessee, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information from the company shows that workers leased from Western Express were employed on-site at the Courtland, Alabama location of International Paper Company, Courtland Alabama Paper Mill, Printing & Communications Papers Division, a subsidiary of International Paper Company. The Department has determined that these workers were sufficiently under the control of International Paper Company, Courtland Alabama Paper Mill, Printing & Communications Papers Division, a subsidiary of International Paper Company to be considered leased workers.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of the subject firm who were adversely affected by increased imports of coated and uncoated freesheet paper.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include workers leased from Western Express working on-site at the Courtland, Alabama location of the subject firm.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-83,129 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers from International Paper Company, Alabama Paper Mill, Printing & Communications Papers Division, a subsidiary of International Paper Company, including on-site leased workers from Manpower and Western Express, Courtland, Alabama, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after October 10, 2012 through February 6, 2016, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed at Washington, DC this 13th day of March 2014.

Notice of Determinations Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor herein presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance for workers by (TA-W) number issued during the period of March 3, 2014 through March 7, 2014.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made for workers of a primary firm and a certification issued regarding eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222(a) of the Act must be met.

I. Under Section 222(a)(2)(A), the following must be satisfied:

(1) a significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

(2) the sales or production, or both, of such firm have decreased absolutely; and

(3) One of the following must be satisfied:

(A) imports of articles or services like or directly competitive with articles produced or services supplied by such firm have increased;

(B) imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles into which one or more component parts produced by such firm are directly incorporated, have increased;

(C) imports of articles directly incorporating one or more component parts produced outside the United States that are like or directly competitive with imports of articles incorporating one or more component parts produced by such firm have increased;

(D) imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles which are produced directly using services supplied by such firm, have increased; and

(4) the increase in imports contributed importantly to such workers' separation or threat of separation and to the decline in the sales or production of such firm; or

II. Section 222(a)(2)(B) all of the following must be satisfied:

(1) a significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

(2) One of the following must be satisfied:

(A) there has been a shift by the workers' firm to a foreign country in the production of articles or supply of services like or directly competitive with those produced/supplied by the workers' firm;

(B) there has been an acquisition from a foreign country by the workers' firm of articles/services that are like or directly competitive with those produced/supplied by the workers' firm; and

(3) the shift/acquisition contributed importantly to the workers' separation or threat of separation.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made for adversely affected workers in public agencies and a certification issued regarding eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222(b) of the Act must be met.

(1) a significant number or proportion of the workers in the public agency have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

(2) the public agency has acquired from a foreign country services like or
