OFFICE OF SPECIAL COUNSEL

Privacy Act; System of Records

AGENCY: U.S. Office of Special Counsel. ACTION: Notice of a new system of records.

SUMMARY: The U.S. Office of Special Counsel (OSC) seeks, in accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, to establish a new system of records titled, "Office of Special Counsel, OSC-4, Reasonable Accommodation Records." This system of records allows OSC to collect and maintain information from employees who request accommodations from OSC for medical or religious reasons.

DATES: Written comments should be received on or before January 21, 2022. ADDRESSES: You may submit written comments by mail to the: U.S. Office of Special Counsel, Office of the Clerk, 1730 M St. NW, Washington, DC 20036; or by email via: frliaison@osc.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Amy Beckett, Senior Litigation Counsel, by telephone at (202) 804–7000, or by email at frliaison@osc.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: OSC is a permanent independent federal investigative and prosecutorial agency. OSC's basic authorities come from four federal statutes: The Civil Service Reform Act, the Whistleblower Protection Act, the Hatch Act, and the Uniformed Services Employment & Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA). OSC's primary mission is to safeguard the merit system by protecting federal employees and applicants from prohibited personnel practices, especially reprisal for whistleblowing, and to serve as a safe channel for allegations of wrongdoing.

Title V of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, prohibits discrimination in services and employment based on disability, and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1974 prohibits discrimination, including based on religion. These prohibitions on discrimination require Federal agencies to provide reasonable accommodations to individuals with disabilities and those with sincerely held religious beliefs unless doing so would impose an undue hardship. In addition, some individuals may request modifications to their workspace, schedule, duties, or other requirements for reasons that may not qualify as a disability but may lead to an appropriate modification to workplace policies and practices.

In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, OSC proposes to establish a new system of records that allows OSC to collect and maintain information from employees who request reasonable accommodations from OSC for medical or religious reasons. Employees include applicants for employment and other individuals who participate in OSC programs and activities and who request reasonable accommodations and/or other appropriate modifications from OSC for medical or religious reasons.

SYSTEM NAME AND NUMBER:

Office of Special Counsel, OSC-4, Reasonable Accommodation Records.

SECURITY CLASSIFICATION:

OSC's work related to this system of records would not ordinarily involve records that contain classified information. In the event there is classified information, OSC would maintain such records using methods approved for handling classified material.
