C. How do I find and browse for posted comments on Regulations.gov? On the previous version of Regulations.gov, users browsed for comments on the Docket Details page. However, since comments are made on individual documents, not dockets, new Regulations.gov organizes comments under their corresponding document. To access comments and documents submitted to this draft version of the study report go to <http://www.regulations.gov> and insert “USCG–2022–0047” in the “search box.” Click “Search.” Then scroll down to and click on the most recent “notice” entitled “Port Access Route Study: Approaches to Maine, New Hampshire, and Massachusetts.” This will open to the “Document Details” page. Then click on the “Browse Comments” tab. On the comment tab, you can search and filter comments. Note: If no comments have been posted to a document, the “Comments” tab will not appear on the Document Details page.

D. If you need additional help navigating the new Regulations.gov. For additional step by step instructions to submit a comment or to view submitted comments or other documents please see the Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) at <http://www.regulations.gov/faqs> or call or email the person in the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section of this document for alternate instructions.

You may review a Privacy Act, system of records notice regarding DHS’s eRulemaking in the March 11, 2020, issue of the Federal Register (85 FR 14226).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The National Flood Insurance Program

(NFIP) is authorized by the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968 (title XIII of Pub. L. 90–448, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 4001 et seq.). The general purpose of the NFIP is to create a voluntary program of flood insurance that can promote the public interest by providing appropriate protection against the perils of flood losses and encouraging sound land use by minimizing exposure of property to flood losses; and integrate the objectives of a flood insurance program. Nationally, as of December 2021, over 22,000 communities in 56 states and jurisdictions participate in the NFIP. Each “eligible or participating community,” shall legislatively (1) Appoint or designate the agency or official with the responsibility, authority, and means to implement the commitments of application to the National Flood Insurance Program and (2) Designate the official responsible to submit a report to the Federal Insurance Administrator concerning the community participation in the Program, including, but not limited to the development and implementation of flood plain management regulations. It is common for eligible and participating communities to assign the FPA role to employees who are also simultaneously responsible for other roles such as Police Chief, Town Clerk, Grants Manager, Finance Manager. FPAs are a diverse group with varied socio-economic backgrounds, needs, challenges, abilities, schedules, learning styles, geographies, and resources. A Training Strategy is needed to direct FEMA’s limited FPA Training budget into training solutions that address the unique needs of FPAs as well as their varied socio-economic backgrounds, challenges, abilities, schedules, learning styles, geographies, and resources to advance equity, professional development, and retention of FPAs. To be effective, the FPA Training Strategy must be grounded in an accurate understanding of FPAs’ varied socio-economic backgrounds, needs, challenges, abilities, schedules, learning styles, geographies, and resources. To achieve this understanding, a Training Needs Assessment must be performed. This data has not been collected previously.

FEMA is requesting a three-year clearance to collect information from FPAs regarding their training needs, floodplain management experiences, and demographics to produce improved outcomes for the NFIP. The data will be used to help FEMA, State, Tribal, and Territorial NFIP Offices, and Floodplain Associations to develop equitable
